SUICIDE OF A CONSTABULARY SERGEANT.

Information reached the Constabulary at Sligo yesterday morning that Sergeant Wilson, of the Royal Irish Constabulary, in charge of the station at Riverstown, committed suicide by shooting himself through the head in an outhouse yesterday morning. Wilson was a good officer and conducted himself well, and no cause can be assigned for the rash act. He was in Sligo on Saturday, but, contrary to his usual custom, did not call at the barracks there.
