

ed:—"That we heartily thank the Party for their patriotic endeavours the British Parliament to save the nation from being reduced from a state of peace to a state of war, and to condemn the mean, cowardly and ungenerous attitude of the Irish Whigs in submitting to the disfranchisement of 23 Irish constituencies, and that we denounce the malicious and unprovoked attack made on Mr. William Redmond, the late Member for the Dublin University, in the Fallen Journal through some design of Newmarket-on-Fergus." The meeting then adjourned.

THE GREAT FEAT OF THE CAMPANIA.

The new Royal Mail steamer Campania left New York at 11 10 a.m., on Friday. She occupied 5 days 14 hours 35 minutes. The passengers were 490, 513, 514, 511, 512 and 513. On the 26th instant, she had to slow down owing to the mist. The ordinary weather was experienced during the voyage.

POLICEMAN ACCIDENTALLY WOUNDED.

One morning, about four o'clock, a shooting accident occurred in the city of Dublin at No. 35 A, attached to Chancery-lane. It appears that while the constable on duty in the neighbourhood of No. 35 A was changing his revolver from one to another when it accidentally went off and a bullet struck the constable on the forehead. A number of people assembled at the scene, and the constable was conveyed to the Meath Hospital, and was received by the eminent surgeon Dr. Thompson, who considered it advisable to send for Dr. Ormsby, of the Meath Hospital, one of the visiting surgeons. On examination it was found that the bullet passed under the skin of the forehead, fortunately without injuring the brain. The constable's escape is looked upon as perfectly miraculous. He is detained in hospital, and his recovery is progressing favourably.

THE LOSS OF JEWELS FROM A COUNTESS.

One afternoon on Saturday, a daring jewel robbery was committed at Portsmouth Harbour. The Countess Howe, who had travelled with her daughter Princess Edward of Saxe-Weimar from Chichester, en route to London, was accompanied with her a lady's maid who had a case containing jewellery. It was discovered on reaching the station that the case was missing. How the case was stolen is a mystery, although a number of people were moving about at the station. The case contained upwards of a thousand pounds worth of jewellery and £90 in notes.

GOVERNMENT AND THE HOME RULE BILL.

PROPERTY QUALIFICATION.

A correspondent of the Liverpool Daily Echo writes:—"I hear that it is probable that on the subject of the Home Rule Bill the Government will insist on the property qualification for the franchise in the Second Chamber. The Radicals are regarded this feature of the Bill with

Mr. Noonan proposed a resolution to this effect, which was unanimously passed.

The board then adjourned.

MEMORIAL TO THE LATE VERY REV. P. LEE, P.P., V.F., KILFINANE.

Immediately after the death of this venerated clergyman, which sad event took place on July 23rd, 1892, his late parishioners (on hearing that he left a bequest to the church he so dearly loved, that a large stained-glass window be erected in one of the transepts), initiated a movement to erect a window of similar size in the opposite transept, and each and every one was only too anxious to show a mark of love and veneration to the memory of their late kind and dear pastor, who laboured in their midst for upwards of 26 years, and whilst as parish priest built a magnificent new church, one of (if not) the very handsomest in the diocese, and towards the erection and finishing of which he subscribed out of his own purse upwards of £500. So indefatigable were his labours on behalf of his flock, that not even content with building this beautiful new church, he also erected splendid new schools and pretty and commodious teachers' residences, and had he been spared a few years longer in their midst, he would have most nobly finished his missionary career by the erection of a new parochial house. It is no surprise that his late parishioners should revere the memory of one who laboured so zealously for them, hence a preliminary meeting of the parishioners was held on Sunday, the 14th August, 1892, at which Mr. John Fizzle, presided, and Messrs. John Doherty and J. F. Hurley were appointed hon. secretaries; and Messrs. T. F. O'Rourke, and P. M'Carthy, hon. sec., together with an energetic and influential committee. Since then the managing committee have spared no pains to make the movement a success. They have just erected in their new church a magnificent memorial window in the northern transept, representing the four Evangelists, S.S. Matthew, Mark, Luke and John, a real work of art, the contract of which was placed in the hands of the eminent firm of Mayer and Company, of Munich and London, underneath which is a pretty and artistic mural slab designed by Mr. George C. Ashlin, O.E., Dublin, and executed by the firm of P. J. O'Neill and Company, Brunswick-street, Dublin, with the following inscription:—"That the people of this parish, joined by a few clerical and lay friends, erected this slab and above window to the undying memory of their beloved pastor, Very Rev. P. Lee, P.P., V.F., who laboured untiringly for them, and built this church." The corresponding window in the opposite transept, the bequest of the late Father Lee, is finished in the same artistic style and manner by the above-mentioned firms, and on which is represented the four Doctors of the Church, S.S. Augustine, Gregory, Jerome and Ambrose, with the following inscription:—"Pray for the soul of the Very Rev. P. Lee, P.P., V.F., who died 23rd July, 1892, in his 70th year, and by whose bequest the above window was provided."

THE ROYAL UNIVERSITY.

R. Kerr b Cashel ..
R. Morrissey b Cashel ..
M. Casey b O'Sullivan ..
J. Daiton b O'Sullivan ..
M. O'Rourke b Cashel ..
T. Ryan l b w ..
T. M'Mahon c O'Sullivan ..
J. White b Cashel ..
T. O. Carroll not out ..
J. Christy b O'Sullivan ..
Extras ..

Total ..

MARKET INTELLIGENCE.

LIMERICK MARKET.

BREADSTUFFS—W. and A. sack; whites, 24s 0d; fine, 24s 0d; W. Bran, £6 0s per ton; 15s; W. pollard, £5 5s; Indian meal, O., £5 8s; c. £6 4s The above are whole.

CORN—The first sample in market to-day. The grain is good and sold at 9½d per stone.

BUTTER—There were 4 cwt. in market this day. The cured butter was from 63s to 66s; inferior, 58s to 60s. All sold from 9d to 12d.

EGGS—Hen eggs, 7d to 8d; ducks, 8d to 10d.

FOWL—Chickens from 60s; long clear middles, 59s.

MEAT—Hind quarters, 7d; fore quarters, 7d; roasting chops, 9d; corned beef, 7d.

WOOL—Hogg, 9½d per lb.

HIDES AND SKINS—Hides, 18s to 20s; kip and runner, 18s to 20s; calf skins, 1s 9d to 2s 2d; 0d to 9s 0d each; ass skins, 1s 6d to 2s 0d; shorlauns, 1s 6d to 2s 0d; to 1s 4d each.

HAY AND STRAW—There were 18 loads of oaten straw, 18s to 20s; in market to-day. Old do, 82s to 84s; hay 47s 6d to 70s; old oaten straw, 40s to 60s.

POTATOES—There were 100 boxes in market to-day, which sold at 6d per stone.

LIMERICK CREAMERY.

There were 10 keils, 100 boxes in market to-day, 109s per cwt; current do.

CORK BUTTER.

(SPECIAL TENDERS)
Ordinary firsts, 101s; second fourths, 89s. Kegs—Firm Mild cured firkins—103s; mild, 99s. In market mild.