

ction in the
et posted at
hostile fleet,
and was to
ting of the
uvres of the
four weeks
or not we are
Their first
t can be got
his purpose
t of ninety-
several posts
a thorough
largeat fleet
l in time of
testimony to
ry's Govern-
es. Our war-
face of the
ver our in-
ies. It is,
ry to know
f ninety-two
the British
it might be
ary hostile
n any which
ces be col-

tion to Limerick will be run on Saturday next, the competitors, who it is stated, will include Mr B. Gabbins, Limerick, starting about nine o'clock. The result will be looked forward to with great interest by wheelmen as the best cyclists in Ireland will be amongst the competitors. A splendid pneumatic bicycle, value for £30, will be given away as first prize, and other valuable prizes will be offered.

DEATH OF A POLICE PENSIONER.—Mr John Creagh, ex-Sergeant R.I.C., died at Vyse's Fieldon yesterday, after a brief illness. He had thirty years' service in the force, portion of which time he was stationed in Wm.-street, Collooney street, and Blackboy. He retired from the service thirteen years ago. Deceased was esteemed by a large number of friends, both in the force and amongst the general public. The interment took place at Mount St. Lawrence cemetery to-day.

THE LATE DROWNING ACCIDENT AT O'BRIEN'S BRIDGE.—We publish in our advertising columns an appeal on behalf of the families of the two men who were drowned in the Shannon on the occasion of the O'Brien's Bridge Regatta. The touching tale will stir the hearts of all charitably disposed people on behalf of those who by this direful occurrence are now deprived of their bread-winners, and we hope that the fund will turn out the success that it undoubtedly deserves to be.

Serious Golf ACCIDENT.—We regret very much to report that Mrs W. J. O'Donnell was a few days since seriously injured by a golf stick, the result of a pure accident on the part of a relative of hers. The young lady sustained a very bad wound on the forehead, and is under medical treatment at her residence in Lower Hartstonge-street. On inquiry this evening we learn that

By Rev. Dr. Han-
han, P.P. Bal-
last Solemn
S.J.; Rev. J.
Shanahan, P.P.
Quain, P.P.; Re-
the obsequies
to a hearse in Cemetery, for
gentleman's
the hearse.
tentative assa
that last Sat
respect to the
who had pass
the trade bar
pended from
the flag at high, and t
universal evide
The coffin wa
butes. On the
his loving wi
"From His I
Francis Borris
May, Fannie, a
Lizzie Ryan,
and Mr Thom
wreaths were
Alderman R
ford; "Mr
and Miss I
Michael Egan,
Mr Archibald M
others whom w
of Carpenters,
player, also sen

The chief m
C.E., and Mr
T.C., son-in-law Bourke and
Amongst the at