LIMERICK RACES.

The Limerick Races which are to be held over the Greenpark course on St Stephen' Day promise to be very successful if the clerk of the weather only behaves himself respectably. The entries which we have already published are excellent, so that good racing may be anticipated, and St Stephen's Day being a general holiday there will be a very large gathering of city and county folk.

HUNTING.

The County Limerick Hounds met yesterday at Knockaderry and had a capital spin of about four and a-half miles, ending in a kill. The pace all the way was "flying," the Master, Mr M. W. Details of report are unavoidably withheld.
