

agreeable medicine of Home sweeten it for you afterwards is particularly suited to your own As to London itself, Mr think that the metropolis merely a London view of and for the best of all reasons. an any other part of the interests bound up with the the well-being of the empire as a more than any other part of concerned in the sanctity of country of trade, the greatness of and in the strength of our Turning to the claims of the present, he said the Party were relying upon the past, a tempter remarked, the Gladstonians object to. Mr Balfour main- tainist Government had been the chief branch of social reform. In six years there had been legisla- tion hours of labour, legislation relations between labour and of the land laws, encourage- ment owners in Ireland, and in Scotland freeing of education, working classes, development of parts of the country—whether in the western district on the west of Limerick the no less melancholy and of the west of Ireland. This work of the past. As to the work done before the Unionists there occupy many future sessions of the First was the Irish Local Government which has already received the overwhelming majority of the votes. This is to be followed by the development of the policy of the country, which will do more for the country than any legislative course will be adopted towards the country will also obtain the benefit of her Private Bill legisla- tion. The cost, the expense, and the going to Westminster. As regards in general, registration and the the of first importance, and with the important subject of redistribution. Adjusting the relations between employed will be subjected to be placed on a basis more satisfac- tory to the workman. In England Government, by means of district night of the Horse Show, June 30th, at the Athenaeum. Tickets 10s each. It is particularly requested that applications for tickets will be made on or before Saturday, 25th, to Secretary Dance Committee, Roxboro', Limerick.

LECTURES ON NURSING.—A series of lectures on nursing, with practical demonstrations, will be given by Miss Hore in the Board-room, Barrington's Hospital, on the evenings of Wednesday, beginning June 22nd, and ending July 20th. Admission 6d; course of five lectures, 2s.

ST MARY'S CATHEDRAL.—SPECIAL SERMONS ON SUNDAY NEXT—In view of, and to a certain extent preparatory to, a mission extending over a week, which, it is proposed to hold in Limerick later on in the year, the Rev A. Robinson, A.M., Examining Chaplain to the Bishop of Waterford, will preach in St Mary's Cathedral at both services on Sunday next.

ROYAL ARTILLERY—The 74th Battery Field Artillery, arrived here last evening, on the march from Longford, en route to Glenbeigh for the annual practice. The Officers of the Battery are—Major S. P. Owen, Captain Bond, Lieutenants Crozier, Read, and Devenish. The corps were billeted throughout the city last night, and resumed their journey this morning.

ADDRESS TO THE REV. DR. CLARKE.—The numerous friends of the Rev. Dr. Clarke, Rector of St. Thomas's, Dublin, will be glad to learn that steps are being taken to present an address, etc., to the Rev. gentleman, on the occasion of his departure from Limerick. A circular from the Select Vestry of St. Munchin's Church will be found in another column, and we have no doubt it will be very generally responded to in the city and suburbs. Mr. F. Finch, is the Hon. Treasurer, and the Hon. Secretary, Mr. A. J. Eakins, 114 George-street.

THE COMPTON COMEDY COMPANY.—Theatre goers will learn with pleasure of the visit to Limerick next week of the Compton Comedy Company, who fill an engagement of six nights and one matinee, at the Theatre Royal. It is now a few years since Mr and Mrs Compton and their excellent Company last paid us a visit, and we are certain that they will receive a right hearty welcome on Monday night, and crowded houses during their stay. The Compton Company are especial favourites in Limerick, and they will add to their popularity by the really attractive programme to be presented next week, and which will be found in our advertising columns.

DEATH OF MR. WILLIAM EBRILL.

We announce with sincere regret the death of a highly esteemed citizen, Mr William Ebrill, which took place at his residence, Summerville Cottage, this morning, after a few weeks' illness. The news of his demise came as a shock on his many friends in the city this morning, so unexpected was it. Mr Ebrill, who was a widely-read man, took a great interest in anti- quarian matters, and as an authority on local historical subjects the greatest weight was always attached to his opinion. Possessing a very agreeable and retiring manner, he was highly respected by a large circle of friends in Limerick, who deeply lament his death and sympathise with his family in their bereavement. The funeral takes place on Saturday morning at nine o'clock.

"That we again beseech our country heartily adopt the cause of Amnesty, and bearing the undeserved sufferings of Messrs and Egan and the other political prisoners, grudge no time and spare no pains to un- release a united and powerful national de- Mr O'Brien, Shanagolden, seconded the tion, which was supported by Mr Edward Harrington, M.P., who was r with loud cheers. He said that he had pride and pleasure in speaking to the first tion, and he had equal pride and pleas speaking to the second resolution, and he now with the perverseness of a Kerryman the second before the first. Let him not purpose of making an ad captandum spee because it was engraved in his heart to s he thought the first resolution they ought pose on any platform, ought to be a dema the liberation of those men who had suffe unjustly and so long for the cause of (cheers). He hoped, and he was led to that if they stood always as firm as they day and to-night—as firm as he had alwa them stand—that before long, pleas they would have the pleasure of welcomin the shadow of that monument, John Dal- fellow-citizen amongst them once again (But let him tell them this, that they wou get that by begging, beseeching, craw cringing. God knows they had done a lot but if they were united, firm, and dete they might be sure they would win in 1 and in the long run (cheers). He (Mr E ton) got himself without note or warnin out reason or cause—he got the first time life, six months' imprisonment—he got t afterwards, but what was that compared sentence on a man who had to eat out 1 who had to herd with convicts who had pathy with him; who had to be throw into touch with officials who had no s with him, or his cause, and they would from him that he was in a better positi the average man amongst them to apprec position of Daly, Egan, and others (che said that it depended on them to-night pended on them to-morrow; it depended during the next three weeks, as to whet shall be a finality to the sentences on th At the present time, and in the coming there would be a lot of bandying of word arguments as to which political party wa sible for the present political situation, told them this—and he was only telli what they knew—that both part responsible for the detention of John D his fellow prisoners in goal. There wa tion of the Irish party that still laid cla name of Nationalists that had not the co to give them (the Parnellite Party) the wanted in order to release John Daly fellow prisoners from gaol (groans). Pr he said that he had the proud privilege ding over the Convention in Limerick (—"You are worthy of it"), and he coul from his fourteen or fifteen years' expe public life, he never saw any meeting sembled which would do more credit to and county (cheers). He announced that Mr William Nunan w unanimously selected candidate f Limerick, and he believed he would c banner of Independent Opposition triu in this election. His Friend Mr Henry (cheers) who had been selected for the division, young man as he was, had a go and he was the great grand nephew c who was hanged in '98, Henry Joy N