the city and county, having promised es, and under the able conductorship k Muspratt, A.C.O., Organist, &c., of ral, a most enjoyable concert is antici-

JISHED VISITORS AT ADARE. and Countess of Dunraven are enter-Adare Manor a distinguished shooting ding—His Excellency, the Lord Lieurd Castletown, Lady Kenmare, Lord De Vesci, and others. The shooting ery good, though interfered with more he inclement weather, but, notwithover 1,500 head of game were bagged

AGISTRATES FOR LIMERICK. l Lieutenant has appointed Mr James C, to the commission of the Peace for Mr O'Mara is an old citizen, respected es in the community, and the complih has been paid to him will be heard riends with pleasure. We understand ommission of the Peace has also been Mr John Clune, T.C., and Mr P. E. C., both of them followers of the party as well as Mr O'Mara.

SPATCH OF LOCAL MAILS. nformed by the local Postal Authorities, clearances at the Receiver for the f early local mails are now made as Ennis, etc., box cleared at 1 a.m., ulla, and Tarbert lines, box cleared at Kerry line, hox cleared at 3.30 a.m., merick Rural District at 5.30 a.m.

JRY TO CHURCH WINDOWS.

recent Presentment Sessions held in Courthouse, the following magistrates ent, with a number of associated rate-Messrs D. M. Maunsell, in the chair; irien, D L; Major General Lloyd, Dr ayes, John B. Hewson, E. R. Fosbery, rd Westropp.

malicious injuries were considered by and amongst the rest a claim for £15 ion for injuries done to Kilscannell reave, solicitor, appeared in support of ation, and having stated the facts, Canon Wills, Rector of Rathkeale and l, was sworn, and testified to the injury

ert Fogerty, CE, Limerick, also gave the value, and the court unanimously e full amount claimed.

HE DOUGLAS CONVICT.

ict Cooper arrived at Liverpool from Man yesterday afternoon; and was A large crowd awaited the he steamer, and indulged in uncomxpressions.

ess of Powis was safely delivered of Berkeley square, London, at noon By the birth of this child the title of siums, these take us but part of the way towards fulfilling the purpose of the institute. It was quite right to have a healthful body; but a healthful mind in a healthful body was better. He neathriti mind in a neathriti body was better, de illustrated the utility of the classes from the sharpness of persons in the habit of meeting many of different dispositions daily when compared with the want of it in those who lived secluded, though perhaps with higher natural ability Having considered the usefulness, he then dealt with the difficulty, and showed how debating and essaying classes are an opportunity and an occasion, but must not be mistaken for a short cut to knowledge. There was no royal road, he said, to There was no royal road, he said, to The king and the beggar must knowledge. bridge it all the way. He next dealt with the means of making the classes useful and to serve their purpose. In this connection he drew a distinction between flippant talking and good speaking, and remarked that there was no good in having copious expressions if they had nothing to express. He then showed the utility of essay-writing for the purpose of precision of thought, soundness of knowledge, and exactness of express sion. The address was illustrated throughout with some appropriate instances that came within the knowledge of the Very Rev President.

Mr H. J. Guinane proposed a vote of thanks to the speaker, and Mr Enright seconded the proposition, which was supported by Messrs Fogerty, Close and J. A. Bourke, etc.

Dr O'Riornan briefly acknowledged the vote. He was indebted to each and all for the kind things they had said of him, and the very flattering way in which they favoured him for his

On the proposal of the Chairman, Rev Dr O'Riordan, President; Mr Moylan, V.P. Mr Darmody, Hon, Sec; with Mesers Enright, Close, Larkin and Fogerty, were appointed a committee to arrange detaile of procedure.

The next meeting on Thursday evening, 8th inst, at the usual hour, when Mr Moylan will read a paper on "How to get on in the World," subject to a general debate on its merits.

SUPPOSED INFANTICIDE.

An inquest was held at the County Courthouse by Mr Coroner Cleary to-day, touching the death of a female infant, name unknown, whose body was found in a stream near Castle Park on Thursday last. A young fellow named Martin Ryan was amusing himself on the day in question, when he noticed the body in a stream, wrapped up in a piece of red cloth. He communicated the matter to some other parties, and the police had the body taken to the morgue, where it was examined by Dr Mulcahy. He stated that the infant was about a fortnight old, and that it had some food in its stomach. Death, he said, was due to drowning, and the jury found a verdict accordingly. Sergeant Chambers, Caherdavin, appeared on behalf of the police. No arrests have been made in connection with the SALE OF VALUABLE LICENSED PREMISES.—We would direct particular attention to the sale of the valuable and well-situated licensed premises and general grocery concerns, No. 52 George street, with bar entrance from Glentworth street. The position for a bar trade as well as a grocery concern is one of the best in the city, on the direct route to the railway terminus. The dwelling house overhead can be easily sub-let.

would these suggested improve ciated by the travelling public tourists who are an increasing never hesitate to pay handsomely comforts, would also be more sat are, as they complain bitte practically starved on came through from London a sho an American gentleman who w White Star steamer Teutonic He came off the mail boat at Kin through carriage at Kingsbridge, time at Kingsbridge for him to go tea, and at Limerick Junction the ref was closed for repairs. He would to get anything at Queenstown, t that the unfortunate man, who we strong, would be actually with seven o'clock on Wednesday twelve or one o'clock the i when he would be on board the running out to sea. This is not as and it is very clearly the interest terprising company as the Great Western is to follow the example in dining cars, etc., of the great Engl

Apologising for trespassing so space, and thanking you in ar inserting this letter,—Yours, etc.

ALEX. W. Vice President Chamber o Limerick. Limerick, Nov. 30th, 1892.

GAME PROSECUTIO

At the County Petty Sessions before Mr W. F. O'Grady, in the cl Butler, R.M., the Commissione Revenue, at the suit of Mr Revenue Officer, prosecuted John O residing with his father at Rosbrie and destroying game-to wit, s a game license. There was a against him of using a setter dopurpose. Mr C. R. B. Heaton-Arm that he was out shooting in Ballyc the day in question, and saw the d accompanied by a boy carrying Defendant had a gun, and a was beating about, and he saw O'I snipe and shoot it. Witness wer and said he had his game license and asked defendant to produce h stood defendant to say that he h He then went to the boy and asked out the bag, which he did, and the five snipe in it. On cross-examinati appeared there in the interest of the of game.

Mr Doyle, solicitor for the def that on the morning of the day in q going shooting, the defendant had v to the Excise Authorities, enclosin for the amount of the license, and shooting, and requesting them to license. He left the letter to be se Mr Cassidy said that the le received till the following morning that there was no evidence to show not written after the defendant from shooting.

The magistrates fined the defei the first charge, which they mitigs with a recumendation that it be fi to a sum of £1. The second cha drawn by the Excise officer.