"The receipts for 1891 are slightly less than those of the previous year. The net profits, owing to the additional prices paid for many articles of consumption and an additional outlay in painting and repairs, are less than those of last year. They amount to £58 4s 6d. Your directors recommend the payment of a dividend of 10 per cent. on the paid up capital, which will absorb £50, and the carrying of the balance, £8 4s 6d to credit of Reserve Fund. Messrs. EXTENSIVE LAND AND CATTLE SALES—We would direct the attention of our agricultural readers to Mr F. W. M'Carthy's programme of forthcoming Land and Cattle Sales, which appears in our advertising columns this evening.

THE SALE AT BALLYSIMON ON TUESDAY.—We would call our readers notice to this important fixture to be held by Mr Wm B. Fitt, for the executors of the late Sir James Spaight. We set out full details in another column. The interest in Ballysimon farm, so well known, will be disposed of at the sales rooms of Mr Fitt, on Saturday 13th inst, at 1 o'clock.

AUCTION OF THE LATE MR GILDEA'S EFFECTS.—Our readers will notice that the effects of the late respected and lamented Governor of the County Limerick Prison, Mr J R Gildea, are to be removed to Bernal's Rooms, Thomas-street, for auction sale, on Thursday next, the 11th February, the Prison Board objecting to a public sale. We understand that Mr Bernal sold in the prison, for the former governors, Messrs Woodbourne and Eagar. The necessary removal of the furniture is particularly severe on Mrs Gildea as it is attended with great trouble, much cost, and the certainty of the furniture not appearing to the same advantage as if it was allowed to be exposed where it was actually in use. It is all of Dublin make, and seemingly in good condition.

ANOTHER TESTIMONIAL RE CELLULAR CLOTHING.—Mr C. Corneille has received the following: "26 Glentworth street, Limerick, Feb 2nd, '92.—Dear Sir—I am happy to say that the Cellular Underclothing is a great success. It gives warmth without the inconvenience caused by heavy flannels, and I find it pleasant to wear in cold or warm weather. It is equally comfortable in the ball-room or hunting field, or under any circumstances involving such changes of temperature as I am frequently obliged to undergo.—Yours truly, E. C. WINTER, M.R.C.V.S.—To Mr C. Corneille, Thomas-street." [Feb 2.]

CYCLES FOR 1892.—We are appointed Sole Agents for Limerick and District for the Humber, Singer, Ivel, Rudge, Rover, Irwell, Belsize, Excelsior, B and P, Tower, Hobart, King and Queen of Scorchers, and other leading makes. We are now booking orders for Path and Road Racers, which orders are only taken up in their turn, and take about three months to execute. Parties, therefore, requiring such special machines, who will not order at once, but who will hold over until the beginning of the season, will have their machines delivered probably about June or July and will have themselves to blame for delay.
