ELECTRICITY ON BOARD WAR SHIPS.

The Morning Post, commenting upon the paper on "The application of electricity to torpedo and other naval purposes," which Lieutenant F T Hamilton read at the United Service institution, observes that we do not know what the next fleet action will be like. Guns and ships have alike changed since two important squadrons last met in actual conflict, and many of what are now regarded as the probabilities of the future are necessarily founded merely upon speculation. We do know, however, that every attempt will be made on both sides to destroy the fabric of the hostile vessels. It has been

In the Matter of the late MISS ROSS-LEWIN.

SALE IN ADMINISTRATION
Of a desirable and important
MARINE FAMILY RESIDENCE,
With all the Valuable Fittings and Furniture,

By Public Auction,
ON FRIDAY, MAY 20TH.

By Mr. John Bernal,
AT HIS SALESROOMS, THOMAS STREET,
In the City of Limerick, at Three o'Clock,
That much-admired Lodge

Corrigmore, or Duggerna View,
THE FINEST MANSION IN KILKEE.

Recently built on the Cliff by the late Miss Ross-Lewin in the best style and regardless of expense.

IT is held for a term of 99 years at the very low rent of £7 only; the valuation is £20.
It is in the finest and most healthy position, near the celebrated Duggerna Rocks, the Amphitheatre, and the Puffing Hole. The House is well sewered and ventilated, and it affords some of the most delightful water, rock, and cliff scenery in this yearly-increasing, and famous summer resort.

The Accommodation—Double drawingroom, with folding door; parlour, breakfast, and dining rooms, all with bay windows; porch, front, and rear halls; study, pantry, china closets, kitchen, with range; scullery, w.c., bathroom, dressing and eight bedrooms, turfhouse, with offices.

NOTE.—This Mansion is fully and appropriately furnished. This the purchaser may have at the Auctioneer's valuation; thus Corrigmore is ready for immediate occupation or letting. If the buyer declines taking the furniture it will be sold publicly on the earliest possible date.

For title, terms, and conditions of sale apply to WM. M. BEAUCHAMP, Solicitor, Mallow-street; or to

JOHN BERNAL, Auctioneer,
Thomas-street, Limerick.

P.S.—When the Railway is finished next month from Ennis to Kilmash, it is anticipated that the value of property will materially increase.
Already there are parties making enquiries after every eligible place to let or sell.
