RLEY'S COMMISSION.

)RDS' RESOLUTIONS. he Executive Committee of the s' Convention was held at their e street, Dublin, on yesterday consider the terms of Mr letter to Mr Justin McCarthy. resolutions were unanimously ies were directed to be forwarded retary and to the Press:

Government have announced of appointing a Commission to port on the subject of evicted and, we claim on behalf of the that the Commission shall be so its procedure so framed as to investigation shall be thorough n its character, and shall extend istances out of which the nont, culminating in eviction, arose,) any facts bearing on the origin h case."

we confidently believe that a full iquiry of this character would reng the action of the landlords, and prepared to place the fullest ineir power before the Commission, taken as expressing any approval ent of another Commission on this uld not be forgotten that, as reprior to 1887, a large amount of seen already taken by the Bess-Richmond Commissions (which 81), by the Cowper Commission in 1887), and by the Judges aphe Special Commission Act, 1888, nto the history and causes of the 79-86, and whose finding thereon ir report (pp. 85-87), presented to 3th February, 1890."

g resolution was also adopted :ttention of this committee baving the circulation of statements on id in the Press that the Irish landlved on instituting ejectment proibarrass the present Government. sisted from enforcing during the ate Government, we think it right no such policy has ever been sughat all such reports are utterly untrue."

Mr Killeen-But when they go and ask, the generality of them say they have the same to contend with themselves

Mr Ryan—They may have tyrannical land-lords there, and not be used to a good one like

Mr Willis-Whether this resolution is passed or not, the farmers will act on it themselves.

Mr Glynn-I really think we ought to pay a little more attention to that letter.

Mr Scott-I think you ought to mark it read.

Chairman—It is known to the landlords and gents as to the farmers. Where is the use of agents as to the farmers.

Mr Galvin-All the same, I think you ought to adopt it.

Mr Roughan—Better leave it to their own dis-

Mr Willis-Say it is adopted by a majority. Mr Killeen (laughingly)—Oh, say it is adop-d unanimously. Mr Willis is not against it ted unanimously. though he says that.

Mr Willis-I am inclined to think I shall have to give the reduction in any case, whether the Cavan resolution is adopted or not.

The Chairman—It is well known to every landlord and agent that the people were not making anything.
The Chairman then marked the resolution "adopted unanimously."
