

promise this year to be more than usually attractive.

L.P.Y.M.A. GYMNASIUM CLASS.—The Annual General Meeting in connection with the above, will be held on next Thursday evening, the 22nd inst., at eight o'clock, in the "Literary Class Room," 97 George-street. Members are particularly requested to attend.

RAILWAY EXTENSION.—Early next year a proposal will be made for the extension of the South Clare Railway from the Blackwell station to Carrigaholt, a large fishing station, and the line take in a couple of villages on the way. The project will be enthusiastically supported.

ROYAL IRISH CONSTABULARY.—Sergeant Leyden, who for the past ten years has been stationed in Tulla, has been promoted to the rank and pay of Head-Constable, and will be placed in charge of the district in rooms of Head-Constable O'Flaherty, who is transferred to Macroom, County Cork.

THE ASSAULT ON MR. J. SHINE, J.P.—Sergt. Keating, Ballinacurra, has arrested a man named Denis Mahony charged with the assault on Mr James Shine J.P. with a hay fork, at Ballykeeffe, some ten or twelve days since. The circumstances of the case have been already published. Prisoner has been remanded to Petty Sessions.

THE LATE MR. J. T. M'SHEEHY, B.M.—Since the demise of this highly-esteemed gentleman Mrs M'Sheehy has received numerous messages of condolence. The Lords Justices acting during the interregnum at Dublin Castle for the Lord Lieutenant wrote, expressing their "deep regret on hearing of Mr M'Sheehy's death."

THE ARMY.—In accordance with instructions from the Quartermaster-General, dated 18th inst., drafts from the following regiments, embark at Queenstown in H.M.S. Euphrates to-day, to join battalions abroad:—1st Royal Irish Regiment at Curragh, 2nd East Surrey Regiment at Tipperary, 1st Royal Sussex Regiment at Dublin, 1st Wiltshire Regiment at Curragh.

THE FATAL ACCIDENT AT THE RAILWAY.—The funeral of the young man James O'Rourke, who died from the effects of shocking injuries received accidentally at the Railway Station on Sunday evening, took place this afternoon. Notwithstanding the very inclement weather the cortege was large and representative, and the Boherbuoy band preceded the hearse playing the sweet and very touching music of the "Dead March in Saul."

MR CHARLES UNDERWOOD O'CONNELL.—Amongst the passengers who embarked at Queenstown on Sunday, on board the Guion steamer Arizona, which called from Liverpool en route for New York, was, says the Freeman, Mr Charles Underwood O'Connell, who took a prominent part in the revolutionary movement in 1866 and 1867. Mr O'Connell has been residing for several years in New York, where he holds an important Government position. He had been home for a few months on a visit to relatives and friends in the county Limerick.

THE FATAL STABBING AFFRAY NEAR LIMERICK.

MAGISTERIAL INVESTIGATION.

Mr Wm Jones, R.M., sat in the Killaloe Court-house to-day and resumed the investigation into service: Mr and Mrs Mascoall Kenrick, silver clothes brush; the Misses Parker, Queen Anne silver salt cellars; Mrs Caswell, silver entrée dishes; Mrs Hunt and Mrs Connellan, silver cheese and butter dish; Mrs A. Shaw, silver bon bon dishes; Mrs Lloyd-Dodson, silver afternoon tea service; the Misses Dudson, brass kettle; Miss Anna Dudson, ring; Dr Gelston, silver kettle and stand; Mrs Robert Murphy, Hungarian bracelet and brooch; Captain Capel-Cure, silver-mounted barometer; Captain Annesley Smith, pearl crescent brooch; Miss MacKern, silver trinket box; Miss Gregg, vols. of "Daily Light"; Surgeon-Major Percival Hunt, silver fruit dishes and chased spoons; Mr and Mrs George Adams, Apostle, spoons; Mr G. P. Gelston, brass clock; Mr C. Gelston, 12 Apostle spoons; Mrs J. Fitzgerald Bannatyne, silver mounted carvers; Mrs Phelps, Normandy buckle; Mrs Bentley, Worcester biscuit box; Mr Digby Bentley, silver claret jug; Mrs J. O'Grady Delmege, silver cream jug and sugar bowl; Miss Florence Grubb, silver salt cellars; Captain and Mrs G. Hunt, silver card case; Mr Robert Hunt, écheque; Mrs Matterson, photo and frame; Miss Sutherland, photo and frame; Mrs de Ros Rose, gold brooch; Mrs Heaton-Armstrong, Mount Mellick, toilet set; Miss Heaton-Armstrong, Limoges china jar; Mr and Mrs F. Kennedy, silver topped scent bottle; Mr and Mrs R. Carey Reeves, Russian leather work case; Mr and Miss Vereker, gold alpine brooch; Miss S. Mackern, silver mounted mirror; Mr Blundenal Plummer, silver button hook and shoe lifter; Mr T. A. Funnell, case, Apostle spoons; Miss Janie Chute, photo screen; Miss C. Cox, Russian leather prayer book; Mrs Montgomery Barret, gold horse shoe pin; Mrs and Miss Herbert, card case and souvenir spoon; Mrs Bosage, Dresden china jars; Messrs Cannock and Company, silver biscuit box.

The beautiful wedding cake was supplied by Buzzard, of Oxford-street.

MR. MOODY IN LIMERICK.

Mr. Moody's meetings in the Theatre Royal have been eminently successful, and create the greatest interest. The attendance has been extremely large, so much so that at some of the meetings numbers of people were unable to gain admission. The opening meeting was held at eight o'clock on Sunday morning, when an impressive address was given by Mr Moody, and in the afternoon at three o'clock, and again at eight crowded meetings were also held, and the services were of a most impressive character. Mr Moody's address at the afternoon meeting was upon "Repentance," taking his text from 55th chapter of Isaiah, and the 7th verse, "Let the wicked man forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord and He will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for He will abundantly pardon." On Sunday evening, the address was on John III, 3, 6, 7, "Ye must be born again." Mr Moody's earnest and eloquent words made a deep impression on all and they will not soon be forgotten by those who listened to him. On Monday at noon, a meeting conducted by Major Whittle was held, and nearly half an hour was spent in reading numerous requests presented for prayer. At three o'clock Mr Moody addressed another congregation on the subject of The Atonement; and his closing meeting last evening was the most memorable of them all, the building being completely filled before the hour for commencing. Mr Moody discoursed on the subject of John the Baptist's message to Herod. Scores rose for prayer in the second meeting, and remained for personal conversation. Mr Moody left for Tralee this morning, but Major Whittle remains and will continue the Mission for some days this company will support.

Hugh Kea head-porter a nus when the past six o'clock going by the crowded with about 800 per centre platform Dock."

Did you see

Witness 1 second carriage being in motion hands with a the passage between the shackles; witness opposite him, deceased fell riage; witness but did not have been run over Barry, who a wards; the d Barrington's the occurrence nothing could owing to the it would have the driver's

To Mr Gaffne fall and the had gone absent seen such a fached to travel but there v and Limeric munication prevented th any means for Witness— Mr Gaffne ing a large premises?

Mr Gaffne

Witness a the entrance so, as they w in by the Co

In answer were eighter

John O'B minus when a friend off, moved up an carriages or people back back with t towards the immediately minutes after a rush made sons on the catch the tri to a carriage he could not diately after shove, and h rails; the re was blocking afterwards t track.

To Mr Gaffne would have

To a Juror sient staff of Robert S on the plat He quite ag O'Brien as r Edward h