And as Mr Healy went on rising higher and higher in passion in reference to this unnecessary topic, I almost expected every moment an appeal to

THE GHOST OF PARNELL IN THE WITNESS BOX not to shake his gory looks at him. It is not alone that Mr Healy has thought fit to drag in again those references to the man who was once his friend, but he thinks it right to assign to the counsel in this case motives the most dishonour-able which could possibly disgrace the character or the conduct of a member of the Bar. Because he has told your lordships that the advisers of petitioner had adopted a plan of producing unnecessary, and what I even think, he characterised as loathsome evidence, with a view to force into the witness-box rev gentlemen in order that their character might be besmirched or assailed. Addressing your lordships, who were once members of the profession to which I have the honour to belong, I think you will not consider me guilty of language too extravagant when I say on behalf of my learned friends and myself I deny not only the truth of that insinuation, but I characterise it as a base and malignant and unfounded calumny.

DUBLIN CATTLE MARKET—THURSDAY.

(L. Cuffe & Sons' Report.)

We had our usual small supply at market to-day.
 Trade better for cattle at fully late rates. Sheep of all classes made about two shillings per head of an advance. Prime beef, 54s to 57s 0d per cwt; secondary and inferior, 40s to 50s; wether mutton, 6½d to 6d per lb; ewe, 5d to 6d. Beasts, 890; sheep, 2,500.

(Ganly, Sons, & Co's Report.)

At market—Beasts, 890; decrease, 2560. Sheep, 2,911; decrease, 3,349. Veal Calves, 5; decrease, 49. With excessively small supplies trade ruled fairly good, notwithstanding the bad reports from England. For first-class stock, our Dublin victuallers are still always able to head this, or any other market, and nothing but the best is sought after by them. Prices 55s to 57s 6d per cwt. Mr P Greaves, and Mr William Delaney, headed our price list to-day. Number of sheep quite equal to the demand, best fancy qualities for home purposes placed to better advantage, other sorts unaltered.
 Wethers, 5½d to 7d; ewes, 4½d to 5½d per lb. The small number of ewes on offer sold fairly well.
 Wool steady. Sales daily at our wool galleries.
