 agent in Limerick and district, in room of the late Sir James Spaight, J.P., D.L.

Messrs W. Costallos and Sons, auctioneer, sold, on Thursday, the interest of Mr Patrick Keating in the farm of Damesfort, near Rathkeale, containing 88 Irish acres, on the estate of Lord James Butler. It was purchased by Mr Richard Nash, of Newcastle, for £1,080.

THE LATE MR JOHN VANDERKISTE J.P.—We are requested to state that the name of Captain MacAdam, East Lancashire (59th) Regiment, was omitted from the list of those present at the funeral of the late lamented Mr John Vanderkiste, J.P., and that Colonel MacAdam was prevented by illness from attending. In our report, it should have been stated that Messrs McCarthy and Sons carried out the funeral arrangements.

FISHING AT CASTLECONNELL—The weather has been rather variable for the past few days and turned very cold on Friday evening. The river has been swollen something, and is at present rather high, but should be in right trim in a few days. On Hermitage, Mr W C Jones' men got on the 22nd—1 salmon, 34lbs; 23rd—1 salmon, 35lbs.
 Mr E J Phelps got on Newgarden, 22nd—1 salmon, 26lbs; 23rd—2 salmon, 23 and 25lbs. Mr W P Kelly got on Erinagh, 18th inst—1 salmon, 37lbs.

 Ash-Wednesday, is ordered by the Church to be kept holy.

LIMERICK HARRIERS HUNT.—The committee of the Limerick Harriers Hunt have arranged a meet at Ballingrane for Monday next, and are taking out two of their best deer. A special train has been arranged so that men or horses need not leave town till the last moment, and can return at a convenient hour when the days hunting is done. Some three weeks ago the meet was arranged at the request of several sportsmen in the western side of the county, and Captain O'Grady anticipates a large field.

CLARE PROTESTANT ORPHAN BAZAAR.—On Monday and Tuesday the annual Protestant Orphan Bazaar will be held in the Harmony Row School house, Ennis, and we feel sure that with a large influ-of people to town in connection with the assizes, it will be largely patronised. The fancy stall is to be under Mrs Scott's management, and Mrs Paterson has undertaken the supervision of the refreshment stall. We trust the Bazaar will be the success it certainly deserves to be.

THE LIMERICK MAYORALTY.

Mr Denis F McNamara (Mayor of Limerick), and Mr Wallace, Town Clerk, were both served to-day by Mr Moran, solicitor, acting on the
