

HORRIBLE MURDER IN OLDHAM.

Oldham, Wednesday. The discovery was made in Oldham this morning of a horrible murder...

President of the Fenian Brotherhood, who had made free with the funds of the association, and was got out of the little difficulty by a timely remittance from Le Caron...

FUNERAL OF MR. JOHN P. WHITE, D.D. The remains of the late Mr. John P. White, D.D., who died at his residence...

LIMERICK CORPORATION. A special meeting of the Corporation was held to-day. The Mayor, presiding, and there were present Aldermen D. Langara, Stephen O'Mara...

and publicly disgraced with them. The fact was that the building was being turned into a warehouse for the Theatre (laughter), and nothing to it. He understood that a performance took place in it very recently...

LIMERICK QUARTER SESSION. The business of the Quarter Sessions commenced to-day by His Honor, Mr. T. A. Q.C., County Court Judge.

THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE

ESTABLISHED 1766. THURSDAY EVENING, OCTOBER 20, 1892

There can be no doubt that Major Le Caron's "Memoirs" will be the book of the winter season: A good deal of what it contains has, of course, been given in evidence before the Parnell Commission...

The Dean of Limerick, and Mr. Wm. Waller, attended the meeting of the Church Representative Body yesterday.

Owing to the death of Mr. John White, D.D., the meetings of the County Limerick F.O. Halls at Cragh Chase, on the 20th, and Tervoe on the 21st inst., have been postponed till further notice.

Sheep-breeders will learn with interest that 100 Perthshire lambs will be offered for sale by Mr Malone, in Bedford Row, on Saturday next...

THE ASSAULT ON BAKERS.—The following resolution was unanimously adopted at a special meeting of the Guild of Bakers on Tuesday evening:—That this meeting disassociates itself from the attack made on two tramp bakers on last Saturday evening...

THE LATE MR. JAMES THOMPSON SHAW.—At a specially convened meeting of the Amalgamated Society of Pork Butchers, Limerick Branch, held at Bank Place on Tuesday evening last, it was resolved:—That we, the Limerick Pork Butchers, tender to the relatives of the late James T. Shaw, Esq., our most respectful and unfeigned sympathy...

DEAD BODY FOUND.—Last evening a report reached the police at Ballinacra that the dead body of a man was lying in the creek off the Shannon at Canigar. Sergeant Keating, and Constables Daly and Bullinan at once proceeded to the place and with some difficulty recovered the body, which was in an advanced state of decomposition...

HOME MANUFACTURE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE. Limerick, 20th Oct. 1892. DEAR SIR,—Seeing in your issue of Tuesday, 18th inst., an extract from a letter of an English gentleman deploring the fact that local manufactures were not encouraged, at least where condensed milk was concerned, I would like to say that there are more than "three respectable grocers" in this city, and that any hotel proprietor could have informed this gentleman where Limerick manufactured milk was sold...

THE MISSION SERVICES.

The Mission Services both in the Cathedral and St. Michael's Church continue to excite great interest, and the congregations are each day increasing. The learned and impressive discourses of the Missioners, Rev. Arthur W. Robinson, M.A., and the Rev. George Thompson, M.A., are listened to with rapt attention, and will doubtless produce a deep and permanent effect. The Children's Services are also very largely attended, and the little ones listen to the words of the Missioners with the liveliest attention...

The name of Col. J. H. Vincent, of Summerhill, Castleconnell, was inadvertently omitted from the names of those who attended the late Mr. Cox's funeral, on Tuesday last.

Owing to the death of Mr. John White, D.D., the meetings of the County Limerick F.O. Halls at Cragh Chase, on the 20th, and Tervoe on the 21st inst., have been postponed till further notice.

Sheep-breeders will learn with interest that 100 Perthshire lambs will be offered for sale by Mr Malone, in Bedford Row, on Saturday next, and we are certain that such an excellent brood will attract a great deal of notice.

THE ASSAULT ON BAKERS.—The following resolution was unanimously adopted at a special meeting of the Guild of Bakers on Tuesday evening:—That this meeting disassociates itself from the attack made on two tramp bakers on last Saturday evening. We are of opinion that conduct of this description weakens our position in the public estimation, and hope that no member of our body is guilty of the attack with which they are accused.

THE LATE MR. JAMES THOMPSON SHAW.—At a specially convened meeting of the Amalgamated Society of Pork Butchers, Limerick Branch, held at Bank Place on Tuesday evening last, it was resolved:—That we, the Limerick Pork Butchers, tender to the relatives of the late James T. Shaw, Esq., our most respectful and unfeigned sympathy in the great loss they have sustained by the death of such a respected and philanthropic gentleman. The men in Messrs. Shaw's stores send a beautiful wreath as a token of their sympathy.

DEAD BODY FOUND.—Last evening a report reached the police at Ballinacra that the dead body of a man was lying in the creek off the Shannon at Canigar. Sergeant Keating, and Constables Daly and Bullinan at once proceeded to the place and with some difficulty recovered the body, which was in an advanced state of decomposition. Upon searching the body the Sergeant found a watch and gold Albert, a meerschaum pipe, and some papers. From the documents found there can be no doubt the body is that of Patrick Adams, a recently reported missing. The body was examined to-day by Dr. Clery, Coroner, and another medical officer, who gave it as their opinion that death resulted from drowning. It is understood that it will not be found necessary to hold an inquest.

HOME MANUFACTURE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE. Limerick, 20th Oct. 1892. DEAR SIR,—Seeing in your issue of Tuesday, 18th inst., an extract from a letter of an English gentleman deploring the fact that local manufactures were not encouraged, at least where condensed milk was concerned, I would like to say that there are more than "three respectable grocers" in this city, and that any hotel proprietor could have informed this gentleman where Limerick manufactured milk was sold. I may add, in conclusion, that if he had called at my establishment at 121, George-street, his wants would have been supplied, and his inquiries satisfied. This is a fair specimen of how Englishmen speak of Ireland, after only giving it a passing glance.—Yours truly, R. HANNA.

THE MISSION SERVICES.

The Mission Services both in the Cathedral and St. Michael's Church continue to excite great interest, and the congregations are each day increasing. The learned and impressive discourses of the Missioners, Rev. Arthur W. Robinson, M.A., and the Rev. George Thompson, M.A., are listened to with rapt attention, and will doubtless produce a deep and permanent effect. The Children's Services are also very largely attended, and the little ones listen to the words of the Missioners with the liveliest attention. The Services for to-morrow (Friday) and Sunday will be found in our advertising columns. The concluding Service will be held in the Cathedral on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, and will be of the nature of a thanksgiving. The sermon will be preached by one of the Missioners, and at the conclusion the Te Deum will be sung. The clergy are intended to be present, and are requested to appear in their robes as at the opening.

The name of Col. J. H. Vincent, of Summerhill, Castleconnell, was inadvertently omitted from the names of those who attended the late Mr. Cox's funeral, on Tuesday last.

Owing to the death of Mr. John White, D.D., the meetings of the County Limerick F.O. Halls at Cragh Chase, on the 20th, and Tervoe on the 21st inst., have been postponed till further notice.

Sheep-breeders will learn with interest that 100 Perthshire lambs will be offered for sale by Mr Malone, in Bedford Row, on Saturday next, and we are certain that such an excellent brood will attract a great deal of notice.

THE ASSAULT ON BAKERS.—The following resolution was unanimously adopted at a special meeting of the Guild of Bakers on Tuesday evening:—That this meeting disassociates itself from the attack made on two tramp bakers on last Saturday evening. We are of opinion that conduct of this description weakens our position in the public estimation, and hope that no member of our body is guilty of the attack with which they are accused.

THE LATE MR. JAMES THOMPSON SHAW.—At a specially convened meeting of the Amalgamated Society of Pork Butchers, Limerick Branch, held at Bank Place on Tuesday evening last, it was resolved:—That we, the Limerick Pork Butchers, tender to the relatives of the late James T. Shaw, Esq., our most respectful and unfeigned sympathy in the great loss they have sustained by the death of such a respected and philanthropic gentleman. The men in Messrs. Shaw's stores send a beautiful wreath as a token of their sympathy.

DEAD BODY FOUND.—Last evening a report reached the police at Ballinacra that the dead body of a man was lying in the creek off the Shannon at Canigar. Sergeant Keating, and Constables Daly and Bullinan at once proceeded to the place and with some difficulty recovered the body, which was in an advanced state of decomposition. Upon searching the body the Sergeant found a watch and gold Albert, a meerschaum pipe, and some papers. From the documents found there can be no doubt the body is that of Patrick Adams, a recently reported missing. The body was examined to-day by Dr. Clery, Coroner, and another medical officer, who gave it as their opinion that death resulted from drowning. It is understood that it will not be found necessary to hold an inquest.

HOME MANUFACTURE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE. Limerick, 20th Oct. 1892. DEAR SIR,—Seeing in your issue of Tuesday, 18th inst., an extract from a letter of an English gentleman deploring the fact that local manufactures were not encouraged, at least where condensed milk was concerned, I would like to say that there are more than "three respectable grocers" in this city, and that any hotel proprietor could have informed this gentleman where Limerick manufactured milk was sold. I may add, in conclusion, that if he had called at my establishment at 121, George-street, his wants would have been supplied, and his inquiries satisfied. This is a fair specimen of how Englishmen speak of Ireland, after only giving it a passing glance.—Yours truly, R. HANNA.

THE MISSION SERVICES.

The Mission Services both in the Cathedral and St. Michael's Church continue to excite great interest, and the congregations are each day increasing. The learned and impressive discourses of the Missioners, Rev. Arthur W. Robinson, M.A., and the Rev. George Thompson, M.A., are listened to with rapt attention, and will doubtless produce a deep and permanent effect. The Children's Services are also very largely attended, and the little ones listen to the words of the Missioners with the liveliest attention. The Services for to-morrow (Friday) and Sunday will be found in our advertising columns. The concluding Service will be held in the Cathedral on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, and will be of the nature of a thanksgiving. The sermon will be preached by one of the Missioners, and at the conclusion the Te Deum will be sung. The clergy are intended to be present, and are requested to appear in their robes as at the opening.

The name of Col. J. H. Vincent, of Summerhill, Castleconnell, was inadvertently omitted from the names of those who attended the late Mr. Cox's funeral, on Tuesday last.

Owing to the death of Mr. John White, D.D., the meetings of the County Limerick F.O. Halls at Cragh Chase, on the 20th, and Tervoe on the 21st inst., have been postponed till further notice.

Sheep-breeders will learn with interest that 100 Perthshire lambs will be offered for sale by Mr Malone, in Bedford Row, on Saturday next, and we are certain that such an excellent brood will attract a great deal of notice.

THE ASSAULT ON BAKERS.—The following resolution was unanimously adopted at a special meeting of the Guild of Bakers on Tuesday evening:—That this meeting disassociates itself from the attack made on two tramp bakers on last Saturday evening. We are of opinion that conduct of this description weakens our position in the public estimation, and hope that no member of our body is guilty of the attack with which they are accused.

THE LATE MR. JAMES THOMPSON SHAW.—At a specially convened meeting of the Amalgamated Society of Pork Butchers, Limerick Branch, held at Bank Place on Tuesday evening last, it was resolved:—That we, the Limerick Pork Butchers, tender to the relatives of the late James T. Shaw, Esq., our most respectful and unfeigned sympathy in the great loss they have sustained by the death of such a respected and philanthropic gentleman. The men in Messrs. Shaw's stores send a beautiful wreath as a token of their sympathy.

DEAD BODY FOUND.—Last evening a report reached the police at Ballinacra that the dead body of a man was lying in the creek off the Shannon at Canigar. Sergeant Keating, and Constables Daly and Bullinan at once proceeded to the place and with some difficulty recovered the body, which was in an advanced state of decomposition. Upon searching the body the Sergeant found a watch and gold Albert, a meerschaum pipe, and some papers. From the documents found there can be no doubt the body is that of Patrick Adams, a recently reported missing. The body was examined to-day by Dr. Clery, Coroner, and another medical officer, who gave it as their opinion that death resulted from drowning. It is understood that it will not be found necessary to hold an inquest.

HOME MANUFACTURE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE. Limerick, 20th Oct. 1892. DEAR SIR,—Seeing in your issue of Tuesday, 18th inst., an extract from a letter of an English gentleman deploring the fact that local manufactures were not encouraged, at least where condensed milk was concerned, I would like to say that there are more than "three respectable grocers" in this city, and that any hotel proprietor could have informed this gentleman where Limerick manufactured milk was sold. I may add, in conclusion, that if he had called at my establishment at 121, George-street, his wants would have been supplied, and his inquiries satisfied. This is a fair specimen of how Englishmen speak of Ireland, after only giving it a passing glance.—Yours truly, R. HANNA.

THE MISSION SERVICES.

The Mission Services both in the Cathedral and St. Michael's Church continue to excite great interest, and the congregations are each day increasing. The learned and impressive discourses of the Missioners, Rev. Arthur W. Robinson, M.A., and the Rev. George Thompson, M.A., are listened to with rapt attention, and will doubtless produce a deep and permanent effect. The Children's Services are also very largely attended, and the little ones listen to the words of the Missioners with the liveliest attention. The Services for to-morrow (Friday) and Sunday will be found in our advertising columns. The concluding Service will be held in the Cathedral on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, and will be of the nature of a thanksgiving. The sermon will be preached by one of the Missioners, and at the conclusion the Te Deum will be sung. The clergy are intended to be present, and are requested to appear in their robes as at the opening.

The name of Col. J. H. Vincent, of Summerhill, Castleconnell, was inadvertently omitted from the names of those who attended the late Mr. Cox's funeral, on Tuesday last.

Owing to the death of Mr. John White, D.D., the meetings of the County Limerick F.O. Halls at Cragh Chase, on the 20th, and Tervoe on the 21st inst., have been postponed till further notice.

Sheep-breeders will learn with interest that 100 Perthshire lambs will be offered for sale by Mr Malone, in Bedford Row, on Saturday next, and we are certain that such an excellent brood will attract a great deal of notice.

THE ASSAULT ON BAKERS.—The following resolution was unanimously adopted at a special meeting of the Guild of Bakers on Tuesday evening:—That this meeting disassociates itself from the attack made on two tramp bakers on last Saturday evening. We are of opinion that conduct of this description weakens our position in the public estimation, and hope that no member of our body is guilty of the attack with which they are accused.

THE LATE MR. JAMES THOMPSON SHAW.—At a specially convened meeting of the Amalgamated Society of Pork Butchers, Limerick Branch, held at Bank Place on Tuesday evening last, it was resolved:—That we, the Limerick Pork Butchers, tender to the relatives of the late James T. Shaw, Esq., our most respectful and unfeigned sympathy in the great loss they have sustained by the death of such a respected and philanthropic gentleman. The men in Messrs. Shaw's stores send a beautiful wreath as a token of their sympathy.

DEAD BODY FOUND.—Last evening a report reached the police at Ballinacra that the dead body of a man was lying in the creek off the Shannon at Canigar. Sergeant Keating, and Constables Daly and Bullinan at once proceeded to the place and with some difficulty recovered the body, which was in an advanced state of decomposition. Upon searching the body the Sergeant found a watch and gold Albert, a meerschaum pipe, and some papers. From the documents found there can be no doubt the body is that of Patrick Adams, a recently reported missing. The body was examined to-day by Dr. Clery, Coroner, and another medical officer, who gave it as their opinion that death resulted from drowning. It is understood that it will not be found necessary to hold an inquest.

HOME MANUFACTURE.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE LIMERICK CHRONICLE. Limerick, 20th Oct. 1892. DEAR SIR,—Seeing in your issue of Tuesday, 18th inst., an extract from a letter of an English gentleman deploring the fact that local manufactures were not encouraged, at least where condensed milk was concerned, I would like to say that there are more than "three respectable grocers" in this city, and that any hotel proprietor could have informed this gentleman where Limerick manufactured milk was sold. I may add, in conclusion, that if he had called at my establishment at 121, George-street, his wants would have been supplied, and his inquiries satisfied. This is a fair specimen of how Englishmen speak of Ireland, after only giving it a passing glance.—Yours truly, R. HANNA.

THE MISSION SERVICES.

The Mission Services both in the Cathedral and St. Michael's Church continue to excite great interest, and the congregations are each day increasing. The learned and impressive discourses of the Missioners, Rev. Arthur W. Robinson, M.A., and the Rev. George Thompson, M.A., are listened to with rapt attention, and will doubtless produce a deep and permanent effect. The Children's Services are also very largely attended, and the little ones listen to the words of the Missioners with the liveliest attention. The Services for to-morrow (Friday) and Sunday will be found in our advertising columns. The concluding Service will be held in the Cathedral on Sunday evening at 8 o'clock, and will be of the nature of a thanksgiving. The sermon will be preached by one of the Missioners, and at the conclusion the Te Deum will be sung. The clergy are intended to be present, and are requested to appear in their robes as at the opening.