

dition continues to improve. He had walking exercise in the home paddock this morning. The Duke of Westminster telegraphing to the Press Association this afternoon, says:—"Orme is doing well.—(Signed)—W. W. W. W. W."

A deputation from the labour societies seeking to promote a legislative restriction of the working day to eight hours will be received by the Marquis of Salisbury and Mr Balfour to-morrow.

The Duke of Devonshire will leave London on the 25th inst. to attend the Liberal Unionist demonstration at Glasgow. Lord Provost and Mrs Muir will entertain a distinguished party on the occasion.

At the weekly meeting of the Council of the Royal Zoological Society of Ireland, on the 7th inst. T M Hutton, J P, in the chair, the thanks of the Council were passed to W W Despard, Esq. for the gift of a horned owl. The following were elected members:—Edward O'Farrell, barrister-at-law, Land Commissioner; John George M'Carthy, Land Commissioner; John Wynn Power, Esq. 19 Westland Row; Frederick T Trouton, Esq. Caerleon, Ballybrack; E P O'Farrell, 21 Rutland square, N; Edward Byrne, LL D, Irish Independent; Timothy Harrington, M P; Gerald Fitzgerald, Land Commissioner, Subscriber, Henry Hitchins, Esq, 144 Leinster road.

Announcement of Births, Marriages, and Deaths not exceeding 5 lines (which must in all cases be duly authenticated) are charged 2s 6d each. For every additional line 6d.

BIRTHS.

Shaw—May 6, at Bushy Park, Terenure, Dublin, the wife of F W Shaw, Esq. of a daughter.
Tate—May 4, at Cliffoey, County Sligo, the wife of John W Tate, M.D. of a son.
Clarke—May 7, at Benvista, Antrim road, Belfast, the wife of the Rev R J Clarke, M A, Rector of Trinity Church, of a daughter.

MARRIAGE.

Weekes and Johnston—May 2, at St Thomas Church, Dublin, by the Rev Mr Pearson, Alexander Weekes to Lizzie, third surviving daughter of Henry Johnston, of Lower Gardiner street.

DEATHS.

Wilkinson—On the 6th instant, at St Oswald's, Ballingarry, Annis Eliza, the beloved wife of Captain Wilkinson, J.P., and second daughter of the late Edward Brown, Esq., of Wilton, aged 74. Funeral at 11 o'clock on Thursday.
Sullivan—On the 1st instant, at Curramore, Terquay, Caroline Harriet, widow of the late John J Sullivan, of Curramore, County Limerick, aged 74.
Harrington—May 9, at his residence, 14 Windsor road, Rathmines, Dublin, Frederick Charles Harrington, aged 60 years.
Moriarty—May 7, at Mallow, Ellen Mary, widow of John Moriarty, of Mallow, Solicitor, in her 60th year.

CRIMINALS.
JURDER.
Harry Baker, a stoker on the Louth and Drogheda Railway, was charged with the murder of a woman and throwing her into the River Liffey.

DEATHS.
OF A FAMOUS CRICKETER.
The Essex Cricketer, and Cambridge teams was found to-day at his residence in London, his brains blown out. Mr Baker was suffering from depression, following the death of his wife. He was only 40 years of age.

TRAVEL.
ANTS TO BRAZIL.
Survivors of a party of 10 men from Bradford to Brazil to-day, having been rescued from the wreck of Bradford's instigation. The instigation proved delusive. The whole families died of cholera and fever.

STATISTICS.
Decrease, 2513.
—Increase, 22,617.

SPORTS.
N. Berlid, Tuesday. March 13th, say Emin and.
New York, Tuesday. Number, London, beat in a fight for two rounds.

Rome, Tuesday. Formally entrusted to the management of forming a new government.

LOCAL NEWS.
BOUS.
At the Eden colliery, on Monday night, and revolver was used. The police have been called out.

Went in South Wales that a majority of the proposal for a new railway.

ys, named Dent and setting fire to a hayrack. The men were ordered to stop and undergo one month's imprisonment. When arrested they admitted the fire at Grimsby.

—Ladies' Harp, and hear what the violin the hands of this marvelous young violinist.

NOVELTIES WITHOUT ENDS.
The greatest Ventriloquist and Comedian living.

MR FRED ORMONDE.
In his incomparable Ventriloquial Harp, most whimsicalities introducing original local topics and all the gem latest Comic Operas using no less than 100 different and magic Figures.

ANNOUNCEMENT EXTRAORDINARY.
Dr Ormonde has much pleasure in announcing that he will have the honour of introducing in addition to his MONTHLY COMBINATION OF VARIETIES.

America's greatest Living Magnet
MISS MINNIE BALDWIN,
Absolutely the first and only legitimate
MAGNETIC LADY

The beautiful Hawaiian Queen. The Dynamic Earth's Greatest Phenomenon whose extraordinary performances America enjoys with excitement. I see to believe that HUMAN MAGNETISM has not, since its worth many, many travels. Two Hours' incessant and Every incident differing from the apparatus to the echo. Everything of extreme rarity, bearing variety. Produced by the entire perfect arrangement of inimitable marveling a complete Tidal Wave of wonder.

The musical selections will be under the direction of Mr Percy and Miss Lottie (pianists, Madlle Joss Ormonde; acting Mr William Bartram.
Prices of Admission—3s, 2s, 1s, 6d
Doors open at 7.30; commence at 8.00
Carriages may be ordered for 10
May 10

WANTED a Billiard Marker at the Institution, 99 George street. Applications to be sent to the hon. secretary with applicant's own handwriting, on or before day next, the 15th inst. Satisfactory reference as to character, &c. will be required.
May 10

WANTED a situation as Housemaid or Nurse by a person of experience preferred. Address H, office of this paper.
May 10

BICYCLE.—Wanted in Exchange for a Brough-Loader a good second-hand "Bike." Chronicle office.
May 10

Lord Balmwell died yesterday at the age of 80. It is understood that he expressed a wish that his body should be cremated.