will have Commoners above and below. All your public actions equally fail to convince us of your discernment or statesmanship. Offer yourself for re-election if you believe your methods are approved, but retire.' ' Now, we know a good deal about the Newmarket Parnellites—and so does the Fallen Journal, to its grief, and there are no more staunch supporters of Mr. Redmond in his constituency than the men of Newmarket.

THE SUCCESS OF THE RATHKEALE RACES.

The Committee intend holding a two-day meeting next year, at which £500 in stakes will have to be given. They intend sending circulars out, so as to have subscriptions handed in at once to the honorary treasurers, Messrs. John Frewen and Edward Walker Casey, which will be duly acknowledged by the honorary secretary.

THE TRADES COUNCIL.

We are glad to learn that a meeting of the blacksmiths of the city was held last night, in the Mechanics' Institute, for the purpose of organizing the trade to take part in the Trades Council. Mr.
Richard P. O'Connor (Secretary Typographical Society); Mr. Hennessy (Secretary Guild of Carpenters); and Mr. M'Cormack (do.), were present by invitation. It was agreed to cooperate with the Trades Council in their movement, and a society having been formed, it was decided to leave the appointment of officers to a meeting to be held next Thursday night, when all members of the trade in the city are invited to attend.

DEATH OF A LIMERICK PILOT.

On Sunday last the remains of a well-known and popular Limerick pilot, named Behan, were consigned to their last resting place, at Mount St. Laurence Cemetery. Deceased was only ailing a week when he succumbed to congestion of the lungs. The funeral was largely attended, and the pilots of the Shannon mustered in full strength to pay a last tribute of respect to their deceased brother. Behind the hearse marched the chief mourners—Daniel Behan, father; John Behan, Denis Behan, and Cornelius Behan, brothers. The Dock employes were also present.
Deceased was aged about 45 years; he was married, and leave a wife and one child.

FISHING IN CLONDERALAW BAY.

At the forthcoming meeting of the Fishery Conservators, to be held on the 3rd August, an important communication from the Inspectors of Fisheries will be considered as to the advisability of repealing a Bye Law of 1874, so as to give the fishermen of Clonderalaw Bay liberty to use their nets up to high water mark, and to increase the length of their nets. The matter is of considerable importance to the fisheries of the Shannon generally, and the opinion of the board on the subject will be looked forward to with interest.
