LIMERICK LEADER. WEENESDAY EVENING, SEPTEMB

IAL PARLIAMENT.

E OF LORDS—THIS DAY.

(BY TELEGRAPH.)

of Lords met at a quarter past four. were advanced a stage at a quarter of Argyll resumed the debate on the Bill. He contended that it was a abent on the honour of the ds to throw it out in order to give of the country time to think. Argyle entered into an historical d contended that this was the first attempt had been made to form an constitution. All previous revolution presented in the name of existing dstone's followers were not appared the gravity of the situation.

OF COMMONS-THIS DAY.

s resumed in the House of Comfternoon. On the Home Office

Wortley drew attention to Mr pointment of fifteen new officers ctory Acts of an inferior class and lary.

thorities in Unrdigunshire who, he to afford sufficient police protection king tithe distraints. The authoractically leagued with the law-the opinion of the law officers of hich was that a bailiff executing had no more right to make forcible ad a bailiff executing an ordinary stress, and that he was not entitled stance further than might be retect him against assault.

or reduction of the vote was defeated desired to key what steps the had taken to carry out the provict of 1891 in respect of noxious ocpecially white lead to king.

spectors who show carry out the work of deciding hors in a tile also thought the cuton countries.

TE MR. J. HARAN, J.P.

the National Bank, Limerick, whose e chronicled in our last issue, were ay at Mount St. Lawrence Ceme-

THE TRAGEDY AT DOON.

PRIVATE INVESTIGATION.

A private investigation was held at the County Courthouse, on yesterday, in connection with the fatal stabbing of a young man named John Connell, at a football match at Cooga, Doon, on the 27th August, and for which eight young men have been arrested, namely, Robert Woods, John Moloney, Patrick Hayes, Edward Russell, Wm. Tobin, William Anderson, Denis Anderson, and Thomas Ryan.

The accused are charged with "unlawfully and of malice aforethought, killing John Connell."

District-Inspector M'Ghee, New Pallas, conducted the case, and the accused were represented by Mr. Edmund Barry, solicitor, Tipperary.

The proceedings were private, nobody but the prisoners and the police and some witnesses being allowed into court, the members of the Press being excluded with the general public.

Constable Donnellan, stationed at a hut in New Pallas district, deposed to being at the football match in plain clothes, the opposing teams being Gurtavalls, and Oola. Fifteen minutes play had only gone on when something occurred. He saw John Connell (the deceased) facing the crowd and he saw William Tobin (one of the accused) strike him; the crowd appeared to be hostile to Connell. Witness lost sight of him and saw the prisoner, John Moloney strike at several people in the crowd.

Mr. Barry cross-examined the witness, who stated the row was going on about five minutes. He didn's see any knife used, but knew it was from a wound by a knife Connell died.

Michael O'Donoghue, Clogher, deposed to seeing Denis Anderson (another of the prisoners) in the row which Connell commenced.

James Conneil, brother of the deceased, stated that after the Gurtavalla team had scored the Cola people "wheeled" "Here's for Cola." Anderson and his brother got into a conflict, his brother striking Anderson first. The Cola men then "wheeled," Hold Connell of Castlegarde."

In reply to Mr. Barry the witness admitted it was his brother commenced the row. None of the blows he got then hurt him Witness then left that part of the field, and about twenty minutes after he heard of his brother being fatally wounded.

Constable M'Evoy, having given formal evi-

District-Inspector M'Ghee applied for the further remand of the accused till Monday in Limerick.

Mr. Barry addressed the court at length on the nature of the evidence, which in no way implicated the accused in the fatality, and urged that they be admitted to bail.

District-Inspector M'Ghee opposed the application, and

Colonel Tynte remanded the accused in custody till Monday, it being understood that the Urown case would close on that day, and on the following day the accused, would be taken to

New Pallas Petty Sessions, where the defence would be heard.

JOHN D

SPLENDID SPEECH OF PRISON

We print below a report at Bruree on February 24th prisoned fellow-countrym banquet held to celebrate Mr. William Henry O'Sull for the county. It was a shows the calibre of which I posed:—

The toast—"The Nation and City of Limerick"—co of Mr. John Daly, having be thusiasm, Mr. John Daly rose to rea great ovation. He said-G tainly be most flattering to and I daresay I can count in to a few of you here—that coupled with the name Limerick at a moment whe has covered itself with la everlasting honour (cheers) most gratifying to me, for second harbour a though tionality, such victories as as this would compel me it to cling to nationality thou should sink together (loud flaunt the banuer of nation tortured into many a mean tainly like that every mau define what nationality rea by that definition (hear, he my estimation is the faith country disinterestedly (ch may be charged with hav definitions of nationality, a whatever to meet and ansv hear). I say in the first pla of nationality was that w breathed into Ireland (loud that spirit of nationality i breathed it across the Atla and breathed in Ireland, a breath is the county him (cheers). And, gentlemen the nationalists of this hypocrites when they com themselves with Parliamer are doing nothing of the k identified themselves with rights by force of arms, and themselves (hear, hear). with the rest of Ireland themselves; but that time men who laid down these to the dock and to the scartheir lives and liberties for Ireland (cheers). In those one man who rose up and lives and liberties of those ter and henour, and the awant abaguing) Re do

tion? The county Limeric

the other counties of Irela