INFANTICIDE CASE.

CONNOR RELEASED ON BAIL.

ore the Vice-Chancellor, who rius Court to hear motions in of the High Court, in the case largaret O'Connor and Patrick

Doyle (instructed by Messrs yle), on the part of Margaret d that she be admitted to bail. at the two accused persons had r trial at the next Winter Ason a charge of having assisted ncealing the birth of a female having feloniously caused its gisterial investigation took place R.M. at Limerick. An affiet O'Connor stated that she was ge, and that she was arrested on August. Since her arrest she and in hospital. She was still nd and body, and if she should rison until the time of trial she would lose her reason or otherbreak down in health. She was n solitary confinement, except each day, and she often wanand suffered from sleeplessness. she was guilty of the offence ras charged. (instructed by Mr Coll, Q.C., citor) appeared for the Attor-

TYMON UNION.

Y OF THE VETERINARY INSPECTOR.

he said he did not oppose the

he accused offered her own bail

o sureties in £50 each, and this

ed by counsel for the Crown, ncellor granted the application.

substantial bail were given.

ion held yesterday, Mr H. V.
toe of motion to rescind the reJuly, appointing Mr John Caris, Veterinary Inspector of the ear instead of result fees, was 5, and a subsequent resolution
b was carried by 9 to 7, appointry of £30 a year.
dably held over.

ASTLE WARD.

t Town Councillor for the Castle the late Mr. W. J. O'Donnell, to-day. It is stated that Mr J L G, was heading the poll before look.

now almost complete, and it will be formally opened about Christmas time.

CYCLING.

On Monday last ten members of the Commercial Bicycle Olub started to ride 100 miles within twelve hours, in order to qualify for membership and bronze medal of the Irish Road Club. At 8.10 a.m., they were sent on their journey from Cruise's Royal Hotel by Mr Barnett, who also checked them at the finish, and were checked along the route as follows :- Newmarket, 9 20 a.m ; Clare Castle, 9.49 a m ; Inagh, 10,55 a.m.; Miltown, 11.55 a m; Lahinch (521 miles), 12 45 p.m; time, 4 hours 35 minutes. On the return journey the wind blow half a gale right in the riders' teeth, which, with the dust inches deep, made the going so heavy that some threatened to "chuck it." However, the entire ten finished well within the twelve hours, the majority having an hour to spare. The following started :-E. F. Conyers, W. H. Walpole, J. Mulcahy, H. Allsopp, J. Lavertine, E. Clover, C. A. Conyers, E. Cole, E. Cole, junior; and J. Duanne As will be seen, this team did not include the best riders of the club, as J. J. Kenna, T. G. Wilson, Kennelly, Wren, T. G. Kenna, Murphy, Lynch, M'Elroy, and others were unable to get away, but have arranged to qualify at an early date. Young Cole and Allsopp, though under 18, were the first two home, and finished quite fresh. Lavertine, Duanne, and Clover, though novices at long-distance or riding, surprised everyone by the way they stuck to their work.

STABBING CASE.

About 11 o'clock on Monday night a complaint was made at Mary-street Police Barracks, by a man named Tierney, residing in Mary-street, that he had been assaulted under the eye by his son, Martin Tierney. Constables Kerris and Mackey immediately proceeded to arrest Martin, whom they met in the street. As soon approached him, Martin they Tierney sprang at Constable Kerris and stabbed him in the lip with a knife which he held in his hand. After a severe struggle Tierney was overpowered by the police and taken into custody. Constable Kerris's wound although not dangerous, is more or less serious, and he is attended by Dr. Mulcahy, Resident Medical Officer, Barrington's Hospital. The accused, who is known to the police as a bad character, has been remanded.

SUDDEN DEATH.

An old man named Michael Sheehan, of Nelsonstreet, a well-known bird fancier, died suddenly from heart affection last evening.

TO CORRESPONDENTS.

*Rathkeale correspondent must furnish his name, not necessarily for publication, but as authentication for his manuscript, postos, who was driving on 8 hand to stop him. He sa suffering from bleeding, b to know what it was from. upstairs he found Mr Corneil bed on his face and hands. A of blood was over the floor. over, and he found a large gas extending almost to the spina then alive. There was a gu blood from the wound in the t tor about three minutes, durin ness was present. He was dead His death was caused by an inflicted on the throat, such by a razor, and done while th proxyam of raving.

The Coroner then briefly dence, after which the jury for caused from hemorrhage, the inflicted wound whilst decease the effects of erysipelas.

The foreman, on behalf of their sympathy with Mr Corne circumstances, and itendered to sympathy in the affliction which old and respected family.

The Coroner endorsed the expected family.

expressing his deep regret at the stances which imposed this due Mr C. Corneille thanked the expression of sympathy and expression of sympathy, and minated.

The usual weekly meeting Guardians was held to-day, Mr Wm. Nolan pr

There were also present :Inspector; Messrs T. Hartig

Total lodgment during the paid out, £407 9s 6d; bal guardians, £3,397 7s 11d.

Remaining on Saturday, 2nd admitted since, 140; births, 1 died, 7.

After the reading of the man proposed the adjournment a mark of respect to the memory Haran, Manager of the Nation

Mr Clancy seconded the rese passed unanimously. The clerk was directed to se resolution proposed by the chai of deceased. The meeting adjourned.

Two marriages took place Monday last. The happy pair of the Termius, who was we Dundon, Terminus Bar; and Oroom, to Miss O'Loughlis

M'Carthy's Hotel, Groom. B to Dublin by the 9.10 train, al