ion did practical work yestersince his release he has lived in comparative reappointment of additional tirement in his native town. A few weeks ago spectors who are to enter on both the deceased and his sister were evicted from their home by a local landlord. es forthwith. Happily this deceased was an author of no mean talent, and so far exempt from cholera, wrote under the nom-de-plume of " blievenamon." we have some of our English The members of the Carrick-on-Suir Young ared infected, there is every Ireland Society are making arrangements for a he officers having charge of the public funeral on to-morrow. th to be vigilant and untiring THE LIMERICK TRADES AND LABOUR se for anxiety has to a certainty у. Council will be held at the Mechanics' Institute, Hamilton is gazetted as her Maat eight o'clock sharp, and it is necessary that issioner to inquire into the affairs of there should be no absentees. In view of the Dominica. coming visit of Messrs William J. Leahy, T.O., and John Simmons, of the Dublin Council, who dent of the Argentine Republic has are to address the members of the Limerick cuman from the rebels, and im-Association next month, it would be well if those members of the revolutionary junta. public bodies who have not up to this joined the strate attended at the City Police rday. There were two important were subsequently dealt with by Mr J.P. it's London Gazette announces the Mr. Justice Bowen to the House of Lord of appeal, with a life peerage tle of Lord Bowen. ington, M.P., presiding at the meetlational League yesterday, delivered peech in reply to that of Mr. William P., of the previous night. it evidence was given at the inquest in day regarding the murder of a young ears ago on Hampton Downs, whose as found last week in a cave. day afternoon the steward of Mr. lear Malahide, was found lying dead with a gun shot wound in the region t. A discharged gun lay in the room. liam O'Brien, replying yesterday at deputation of evicted tenants, said it tion of the Government's very exisa Bill should be passed for the reinof the evicted tenants as quickly as glish city death-rate last week was 19.7 of the population per annum.

PUBLIC HEALTH.

local organisation, did so immediately. Union is strength! Information can be had from the honorary secretaries, who can be seen at the Mechanics' Institute every evening. DEATH OF MR. THOMAS O'NEILL. We regret to have to record the death of Mr Thomas O'Neill, junior, second eldest son of our esteemed fellow-citizen, Mr Thomas O'Neill, contractor, which occurred at his residence, Lower Cornwallis-street, this morning, after a long and painful illness, borne with the utmost fortitude. Mr O'Neill was widely known and respected in this city and county, and much sympathy is evinced for his parents and relatives in their sad bereavement. Deceased was brother of the Rev James O'Neill, P.P., Dunedin, Australia, who, it will be remembered, was on a visit to his native city lately. Funeral on to-morrow (Thursday), at three o'clock p.m., for Mount St Lawrence Cemetery. MARKET TRUSTEES. A meeting of the Market Trustees was held today, The Mayor presided. Also present-Messrs. W. L. Stokes, J.P. ;

P. Herbert, S. O'Flanagan, O. Wallace, J.P.; W. Spillane, J.P.; and D. F. M'Namara.

tendance.

as a Fenian suspect in Kilmainham Jail, Dublin.

Mr Meagner never recovered from the severities he underwent while incarcerated in prison. His constitution was completely broken down, and

LEAGUE.

The usual weekly delegate meeting of the above motion :- " That the Mas ceive six months soap int accepting it to send a piece and a portion of the art analyst, so as to ensure th a proper article, this to soap is required, and that th to send the result of his a so that no inconvenience w to be Limerick-made."

Wi Helbere handen in e

INQUEST AT R

(FROM OUR CORR

The board soon after adj

An inquest was held a yesterday evening on the Patrick Connell, who was f kiln, Fair Hill, on last Se circumstances surrounding man are very sad. It app six weeks ago he was in th two shillings per week out unknown reason this paltr time mentioned, taken awa parent cause. Since then support himself by beggin evidence by his lodging Williams, that during the man was actually slowly st nothing eat but what h

gave him. It appears th last he complained of bei the lime-kiln to warm h have fallen down from

and consequently was ar

the carbonic acid escap

In the absence of the O Mr D. Maunsell and Mr G the inquest. A respectable jury were body which was lying in house.

Head-Constable Molloy ings on behalf of the Con The first witness exami

John Rourke, who swore the kiln on Saturday last. Connell the deceased of told witness he was very limestone.

lief was taken off him. H come home with him and declined, and witness we On his return he found floor of the kiln and two several times. Dr. John Bouchier Ha amined the body on Satu life extinct. He preser having died from aphyxia half an hour dead. He ( that he had a sufficient immediate cause of deat one on Saturday next thanking the committee for granting the Artillery the use of the Market Field for holding Mr J. Hardiman, secretary, and Mr P. Fitzgerald, Inspector of Markets, were also in at-

A letter was read from Major Burton, R.A., stronger man or any quantities of the coarses died under the circumsta Head-Constable Mollo the body and sending dead when he saw him.

h m. He was quite dead police. He (witness) g