The Clerk replied two of the Catholic clergymen, a Protestant clergyman (Rev Dr Griffith), Mr Hill, and Mr Macnamara.

Father Carey said that he and Father O'Kelly would be willing to act on the committee. He then addressed the meeting, briefly pointing out the disabilities under which the Christian Brothers, who were receiving no State aid whatever, laboured, and he considered that a resolution from such an important body as the Commissioners would have effect just now, particularly as Parliament would soon re-assemble.

Eventually, Mr MacNamara proposed, and Mr Armstrong seconded, the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:—"That we, the Town Commissioners of Ennis, call upon the Government to remove the disabilities that attach to the Christian Brothers as teachers, by which they are prohibited from receiving State aid, as given to the National Schools throughout the country."

The meeting then adjourned.

DEATH OF A DISTINGUISHED YOUNG IRISHMAN.

We desire to record our deep regret at the death of Mr Thomas Shanahan, a young Limerick citizen who had won for himself an honourable position in London. Though only 23 years of age, and a few short years from school, Tom Shanahan, as he was familiarly called, had already made his mark in life, and it is to be regretted that a promising career was so soon cut short, and at a time, too, when a bright future was in store for him. He was educated at the Christian Brothers' Schools, Limerick, and his successes at the Intermediate Examinations were very brilliant. He carried off in the Junior Grade a £15 Exhibition for three years. In the Senior Grade he took the gold medal for modern languages, and a special silver medal for Gaelic, together with a £40 Exhibition. When Mr. Davitt started the Labour World Mr Shanahan left school to become his private secretary. From this post he graduated to be sub-editor. After the collapse of the Labour World he became sub-editor of Comic Cuts, and was subsequently secretary to Mr Massingham, the editor of the Star. From the latter position he succeeded in getting into the Engineers' office of the London County Council, where he remained until his decease. He was a general favourite with all his associates at home and in London. His brothers, Mr William Shanahan and Mr John Shanahan, had the melancholy pleasure of being with him in his last moments. The remains were interred in Kensal Green Cemetery.—Limerick Leader.
