

18. It is said that this scheme that a company has been formed necessary concessions from the each Governments. The cost of something like 240,000,000 dollars. ne is one for roofing London and as, and thus doing away with the The projector has not yet con- h vulgar and insignificant detail cost, and hence has not enlight- c on this point. Such schemes merican Artisan, of course, largely they indicate a tendency to e most stupendous undertakings mer characteristic of the nervous age in which we live.

ACCIDENTS IN AMERICA.
American correspondents report a y accidents. An excursion train timore and Ohio Railway Com- left New York on Monday, was kron, Ohio, on Tuesday morning having been dislodged. The train Scores of passengers jumped from nd were thrown down a steep em- pwards of thirty were seriously lision occurred on Tuesday on the ailway, Illinois, between a through mixed local train. The engine, ad two passenger carriages of the re thrown into the ditch, and, the fire, thirteen of the cars and the carriages were destroyed. Many ers were injured, but no lives were ay engine, without either driver or y eastward on the Southern Pacific rific speed on Monday night, crash- ds train and smashing thirty cars. and a brakeman were killed. Early orning a mail train collided with cars, which had been left standing y near Providence, about forty miles The engine and several carriages ain were wrecked. The clerk in mails was killed, and several passen- ously injured.

TORTURE OF ARMENIAN PRISONERS.
sh Ambassador has been requested nment to give a formal contradic- tations published recently repre- t the Armenians charged with s at Marsovan and Cesarea had been l otherwise barbarously treated while lis Excellency in a communication Reuter's Agency says:—"The denial sh Government is fully confirmed by ice of the two pardoned Armenians, rived in London, and, judging from y of persons who have seen them, ians looked as if they were in perfect had in no way the appearance of un- n who had been tortured in unhealthy l National Lifeboat Institution has boats under its charge, and last year rewards for saving 1,056 lives from on our coast. At the present time id is needed to assist the Committee ing its great life saving fleet in a state efficiency.

July 20
BICYCLE FOR SALE.—1893 Dunlop-Tyred Bicycle for Sale; quite new; will be sold cheap. Apply by letter "Bicycle," this office.
July 18

FOR SALE, a Treaty Pneumatic Bicycle; Dunlop tyres; very little used. Price £8. Apply to D. Barry, 35 Broad street, Limerick.
July 22.

PRIVATE TUITIONS—A Teacher of several years' experience in school and private teaching, desires a few Private Tutions in Limerick or Suburbs; highest references and testimonials. Address, Alpha, Limerick Chronicle Office.
July 26

COOK—A respectable young woman, just dis- engaged, wants a situation as above; thoroughly understands her business; best references and testimonials; city preferred. Address, "Cook," office of this paper.
July 22

HAY PRESSER—Wanted an experienced man accustomed to working Ladd's Steam Baling Press. Apply to Dobbin, Ogilvie & Co., King-street, Cork.
July 27

Announcement of Births, Marriages, and Deaths not exceeding 5 lines (which must in all cases be duly authenticated) are charged 2s 6d each. For ever additional line, 6d

BIRTHS.
Plunkett—On the 19th instant, at 3 Waverley terrace, Bray, the wife of John Plunkett of a son.
Kennedy—On the 21st instant, at The Uplands, Epsom, the wife of Arthur Kennedy, of Ashstead, Surrey, and Clement's Inn, Solicitor, of a daughter.
Salmons—On the 21st instant, at 126 Belsize road, London, N W, the wife of Professor H A Salmons, C 1 M, M R S A, of a son.

MARRIAGE.
Goudge and Jones—On the 22nd instant, at St Saviour's, Aberdeen park, London, by the Rev J Ricknell, Vicar, the Rev Dr Chambers, Vicar of St Anne's, Poole's Park, and the Rev H W Goodhart, Vicar of St Paul's, Haggerston, Henry W Goudge, of Stoke Newington, to Gwendoline Maude, eldest daughter of the late William Bryan Jones, of Highbury grove, London.

DEATHS.
Delmege—July 26th, at Castle Park, Limerick, John Christopher Delmege, J.P., aged 74 years. The funeral will leave Castle Park for St Munchin's Church on Saturday morning at 10.30.
Coady—On the 25th instant, at Sallins, County Kildare, after a long illness, John Daniel, fourth son of the late Daniel Coady, of Sallins.
Lynch—On the 25th instant, Peter Lynch, son of the late Mr Lynch, Virginia, County Cavan, aged 21 years.

A PROLIFIC MARE—A rather unusual and strange occurrence took place at Gurranejames, near Mogeely, on the property of Capt. Douglas M.P. for East Cork, where a mare, the property of Mr Patrick Evoy, gave birth to two foals, one of them being a horse and the other a mare.

Servants'-room, &c; 2 Coach-houses ling for 5 horses. Tenant can have u and boat on river. Six miles from Li miles from Castleconnell.
Apply to
J. B. BARRIN
Limerick Estates Office
July 22

TO BE LET.
TO LET, FROM THE 1st SEI
No. 6 EDEN TERR
Also, Stable and Coach House, i
For particulars, apply to
MRS. TAYLO
TURKISI
Jan. 26.

STORES.
TO BE SOLD OR LET
THE CORN STORES and PRE in the occupation of F. FERR, E by him as a Bonded Warehouse. Newgate, nere of the City Courthou Application to the Harbour Secr office, Chamber of Commerce.
May 13, 1893

A RDANOIR, FOYNES.—Furni Shannon, near Station, 9 R House, Stable, Gardens. Apply Foynes.
July 8

A PARTMENTS.—Comfortably Sitting-room and Bedroom, best side streets; good cooking an Apply M. K. Chronicle Office.
July 15

TO BE LET, Unfurnished, the of the Victoria Dye Work street. Apply on the premises.
July 20

TO BE LET, at 18, Bar Drawing, two Bedrooms, use Bath Room.
July 25

CORPORATION OF LI
CHAFF CUTTER AND CORN MACHINE.

THE Cleansing, &c., Commit meeting on Tuesday next, t consider Tenders for supplying a C Corn Crushing Machine (combine to prepare food for 20 horses, and hand power.
Lowest or any tender need not Tenders to be lodged in my o'clock noon, on 1st August next.
By Order.
R. MACDONNELL, Tow and Sec. c
July 27