IK THRONICLE

sum 1766.]

NING, JULY 8, 1893

N. at the opening of the t Thursday, referred to his Arst visit to the city ty as presiding over the He expressed his regret th the Mayor was unable his regret we, and the artily concur, and trust indisposition may soon ied Judge referred to the biding condition of the ny former occasions, has The Assises was s only four cases of any up for trial, and these mal characteristics. eported cases there were or for the corresponding As to minor cases, assaults the intoxication cases are

Altogether the state to be very satisfactory as e fear an exception must of an extremely important ifortunately the fact that ge months, or less, an urglaries has broken out, orities have as yet been oure. Many cases have houses temporarily left stomed inmates have been who carried off something nises. One house has been In another case atolen. sd an entrance but carried s of little value. Again of a dwelling has been ticles of apparel that had ere there for drying. In case of brandy rewarded e looters. In themselves glary are of little conseb value of the plunder is are, however, the cause of hose exposed to the attenrowlers, and the loss of in one's home is exceed-Repocially is it the case at of the year when the the family go off for a few - the shildren and servants

FROMIONABLE MARRIAGE-We bave much pleasure in announcing that a marriage is arranged and will shortly take place between Mr Daniel Fitagerald Gablett, JP, of Cahirconlish, in this county, late M P for the city, and Augusta Jane, elder daughter of E. Busier Thornton, of Skerton, Lancaster, Esq, and relect of James Parkin, of The Leathes Co. Cumberland, Esq.

THE SHANNON HOTEL, CASTLECONNELL.—The visitors at the above hotel during the week included+Lord and Lady Castletown, Viscount and Viscountess Do Vesci, Captain J Bayly, Mr G J Varples, Colonel W P Dicken, Mr W J H Jones. The departures included - Mr E T Ingham, Mrs Ingham, Mr E L Ingham, Mr G W Greenhill, Mr W Sullivan, Mr B L Marples, Mrs Marples.

DEATH OF MR DAWSON WESTBOPP, J P .- We regret to announce the death of Mr Dawson Westropp, J.P., who died yesterday at his residence, Mellon, at the age of 70 years. Mr Westropp had been in delicate health for some months past, and his demise was not unexpected. was a very popular gentleman, and was one of the oldest members of the County Grand Jury. Mr Westropp also served the office of High Sheriff some years ago. The funeral will take place on Monday next at two o'clock.

THE COUNTY GRAND JURY AND THE ROYAL MARRIAGE.

In answer to the resolution of congratulation of the County Grand Jury on Thursday, and which was telegraphed to the Duke of York, the following reply, dated yesterday, has been received :— "St James's street, S.W., to the Secretary of the County Grand Jury Limerick—Best thanks for kind congratulations from the Grand Jury-GROBGE."

THE ROYAL WEDDING.

We have received a copy of a school song on the Royal wedding, the words being by the Rev Rrederick Langbridge, M.A. St John's Limerick, and the music by Sir William Cusins, late Master of the Music to the Queen. It is written in Conic Sol Fa and staff notation, and is a very harmonious piece, in which a marriage-bell symphony is effectively introduced. We need hardly effectively introduced. my it will become most popular, and is particularly suitable at festivals in connection with the Royal wedding. Copies may be had from Messrs I Curwen and Sons, Musical publishers, 8 and 9, Warwick Lane, London, E.C.

THE LATE MR JAMES O'MARA, JUNIOR.

The remains of the late Mr James O'Mara, son of Mr James O'Mars, J.P., who died on Thursday at Peckham, London, after a short illness, arrived here to-day by the mid-day train from Dublin. At the station a very large number of the citizens was assembled, including the Mayor and several members of the Corporation, Mr Joseph Matterson, JP; Mr Wm Walsh, Secretary of Cannock and Company; Mr James Flynn, Mr Bourke, George street; Mr Tracey, Mr John Guinane, JP; Mr Myles, JP; Mr M Lenihan, JP; Mr Ebrill, Mr Barry, Mr & O'Keeffe, and a very large number connected with the bacon trade. Everywhere the ntmost sympathy was shown with Mr James O'Mara in his great affliction. The coffin was

LIMEBIUK SUMMER ASSIZE

APPEAL COURT: " [Before Mr Justice Gibson.] (Continued from Fourth Page).

ACTION FOR PULLING DOWN THE RACE CO WALL

It this case the parties named as the plai: were Susan Vokes, Nannie Corneille, and Car Vokes, but the parties actually concerned the Limerick Race Company, and the defer was Mrs Frances Fitzgibbon. The litig arose out of the building of a wall p surrounding the Greenpark Race Course, defendant's property. Some time ago defendant, who was the appellant in the pr muit, brought an action against the race mittee for trespass and injury to her crops, sequent on the building of the wall, and obtained a decree for damages for The race company proceeded with the constru of the wall. Subsequently the defendant emp men and had portion of the wall pulled dov admit of access to her land. The land instituted proceedings against the defer (Mrs Fitzgibbon) for damages resulting from action, and the County Court Judge before the case was tried, gave a decree against he the amount claimed—250. The defendan pealed from that decision, the contention that she was acting within her right in rem the portion of the wall which was built c property.

Counsel for the plaint iffs-Mr D B Sul C, and Mr Redmond Barry, B L (instruct

Mr B Barrington, solicitor)

For defendant-Mr W F Kenny, BL, a: Jasper White, BL (instructed by Mr Nash, solicitor).

Mr Sullivan, in stating the case, said the Committee had acquired land at Greenpar the purpose of holding race meetings, and found it desirable, in order to protec course, to build substantial lieu of the road fence, trespassers. In the construction of the the defendant's land was trespassed upon, a brought an action before the County Court. obtaining a decree for £10. Some time wards, and while the defendant was ac under notice to quit, she caused the wal levelled at two places, and pulled down oth tions. The County Court Judge after beil in possession of all the facts, described the very wanton act, and gave a decree for £ costs.

Michael Ryan, contractor for building th was examined, and stated that to reconstr wall as before would cost £60 or £70; som were levelled to the ground.

In reply to Mr Kenny witness said th building of the walliprevented Mrs Fits from access by the road to the fields, and construction of the wall the crop was treon; there was an old dry wall there pre about three feet high.

Mr M J Kenny, Secretary to the Race Ca examined, stated that permission to be wall was obtained from Mr Kearney, solid

Mr Kenny, BL-You did not as a m fact communicate directly or indirectly w Fitzgibbon.

Mr Sullivan said the tenant was unde to quit and the tenancy was about to term His Lordship said that if she was a tena week she was entitled to knock down if it was an obstruction. He though ever, that her action in knocking down in the way described was very unreasons In reply to Mr Kenny the witness said