The following resolution was, on the motion of Mr J P McNamara seconded by Mr P Hayes, unanimously adopted i—
"That we, the niembers of the Licensed Trade of Limerick, desire to enter our strong profest, against the additional increase of sixpence per gallon duty on whiskey, and we pledge ourselves to unite by every means in our power with the general meeting of the trade held lately in Dublin to secure the withdrawal of the increased duty."

SUDDEN DEATH OF MR P. S. CONNOLLY,

With profound regret we record this ev

the very sudden death of one of our leading and best known citizens, Mr Patrick Shelton

Connolly, solicitor. The painful news which be greatest shock amongst the citizens, who could scarcely credit it that a gontileman who up to the last moment appeared in his usual good health, genial and good humoured as usual, was now no more. As a matter of fact Mr Connolly was still bruff Sessions on Thursday, refurning to town qualifications, combined within a very wide an sound knowledge of the law in its leadin branches, it was not surprising that M Connolly should have enjoyed such a immense business, and gained such wide spread popularity. We may remark, to that while he fought unflinchingly in the interests of his clients, her was never known it demonst to engage the control of the always at hand with details at his inger's ends. Some years ago the Eimerick Harbour Board promoted a bill, afterwards dropped, to acquire control of Foynes harbour, and in this matter also Mr Connoily appeared in behalf of the Corporation, and he also most energetically represented the Civic body in their opposition to the acquirement of the Athenry and Ennis Line by the Midland Company? In addition to the Octopation he was law adviser to the Limerick Lunatic Asylum Beard, the Markets Trustees, and he represented also the South of Ire'and Butter Merchants' Association in their numerous important prosecutions throughout Clare and Limerick. He was also solicitor for the Shannon Fishing Company, the Condenred Mik Company of Ineiand, and, of course, numerous private firms that it is not in our province to no was actively engaged on behalf of the Liber candidates for the representation of the count and city, notably Major Gavin, Mr E J Synar and Mr Daniel Fitzgeraid Gabbett. It only remains for us to add that Mr Connolly was always foremost, both by his influence and with his pocket, in supporting any entertainment for the benefic of a local charity. He took is great interest in Barringtons' Hospital, of, which he was a governor, and also of S J John's Hospital, of which Mrs Connolly, his widow, is a member of the Ladies Committee. The deceased was a member of the Incorporated Law Society of Ireland, and Provincial delegate for Munster; a member of the Solicitor's Benevolent Association, and a member of the Law Club of Ireland moment: their sense of the loss which the Club has sustained, and to offer to his widow and family their sympathy with them in their great
