

their own position. "It has now impossible," says the appeal, "to withhold the country any longer the fact immediate and generous help from h people we cannot hope to keep up the remainder of this session the t attendance of the Irish members at inster, which alone can enable the Rule Government to proceed with the ishment of its pledges to Ireland face of unexampled Parliamentary s. We feel that we should not be fairly with our countrymen were we al from them the actual condition of

Without a prompt and generous re- o this appeal it will not be possible Irish party to maintain their attend- Westminster and to prepare for that election which cannot be very long

The statement seems to be candid, candour seems to be the result of dire

Mrs McNamara, and family, Ennis- ouse, have left for a five weeks stay in sequence of the resolution of the board d meetings on holidays, there was no of the Kilmallock Union on Thursday

F Cox, Lieutenant 19th (Princess of own) Hussars, at present stationed at s, has returned home on six months members of the Presbyterian Sewing esire to thank Rev Canon Gregg for of the Havergal Hall for their sale of d also all the friends who so kindly em by contributions.

arriage took place at St George's, Square, London, on Thursday, of Mr itzgerald Gabbett, J P, and formerly merick City, with Augusta, widow of Mr kin, J P, of The Leiths, Co Cumberland uinane, J P, agent to Mr Gabbett, who t at the ceremony, has returned to RE SUB-LAND COMMISSION.—The Clare Commissioners have been sitting at ice Thursday. There are a number son list for hearing from the tenants roperties.

AND B C SPORTS.—Members are re- at unless their subscriptions are paid air regular tickets will not be sent attending competitors should remember tries close with the secretary on , May 30th.

A. LAWN TENNIS AND CRICKET CLUB. "At Home" will be held on Wednes- g, 30th inst, when Mrs P J Hamilton . A cricket match will take place evening, and the finals of Tennis t over from last season will be played his countrymen are uniting in an effort to pay a national tribute to his memory. It is with good reason that I forward my subscription through you, you know how much he did, and in how many ways, to promote the cultivation of music in general and especially of music of the best and highest kind,—Believe me to be very sincerely yours,

OMENADES.—People are now looking band promenades. These most en-

"Benjamin Mullen, Esq."

The Bishop of Limerick enclosed in the fore- going letter a cheque for twenty pounds.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MRS GAVIN.

The funeral of the late Mrs Gavin, widow of the late Major Gavin, took place yesterday. It was a large and representative one, and left Kil- peacon for St John's Church, where the remains were interred in the family vault. The chief mourners were—Mr Montiford Gavin, son; Master George Gavin, grandson; Mr Monti- ford Westropp, of Mellon, and Father Gavin. Amongst those also present were—Father Gately, S J; Father Kennedy, P P; Fedamore; Father Browne, P P, Mungret; and the curates of these parishes; Dr Browning, Mallow street; Dr Gelston, Dr F Kennedy, Mr James F Bannatyne, D L; Mr J O'G Delmege, J P; Mr Courtenay Croker, Mr Jasper White, Nantenan; M srs White, George street; Mr J G Howley, D L, Rich Hill; Mr J V Phelps, Water- park; Mr A Robinson, Mr A E Bannatyne, Woodstown; Mr J G Barry, J P, George street; Mr R Furnell, Fort George; Mr R Blennerhasset, Mr R Hunt, J P; Mr F G M Kennedy, J P; Mr J A Place, Corbally; Mr James Harris, Mr John F Power, Mr John G Kelly, J P, Fedamore; Mr J Shine, J P, Pery Square; Mr John Hardiman, Mr John Ellard, Mr Vincent Nash, J P; Mr R Nash, solicitor; Mr Fred Finch, Mr Thos Westropp, Dublin; Col Finch, Mr A Blood-Smyth, solr; Dr J F Shanahan, Limerick; Mr Woodhouse, George-st; Several city and county residents sent carriages.

Messrs P M'Carthy and Son had charge of the funeral arrangements.

DEATH OF MR JOHN DALY (TODD & CO).

The deepest regret is felt by a very wide circle of friends at the death of Mr John Daly, boot-buyer, Messrs Todd and Co's, with which concern he has been connected for 17 years. The deceased had been ailing for some time, and his death was not unexpected. He was ex- ceedingly popular with all classes of the com- munity, an excellent business man, and highly esteemed by the firm. He was a prominent member of the Shannon Rowing Club, and also of the Drapers' Club. The remains were re- moved last evening from St John's Hospital to St Michael's Roman Catholic Church, and were followed by a very large body of the citizens. The funeral will leave the church at 9.30 to-morrow morning for the railway station, and thence by special train, leaving at 10 o'clock, for Abbeyfeale.

THE ALDERMANSHIP OF THE GLENTWORTH WARD.

To-day the Mayor attended at the Town Hall for the purpose of hearing any objections that might be made in connection with the nomination of candidates for the Alderman-ship of the Glent- worth Ward, the vacancy having been caused by the election of Alderman Dundon to the Law Advisership of the Corporation. The candidates are the High Sheriff (Mr P Kenna) and Mr M' Mahon Cregan, J P. Mr J P Gaffney, solr, attended in the interests of the High Sheriff. No objection was made, and, as arranged, the election will take place on the 4th June. The High Sheriff was proposed in the first paper by Mr Wm M Beauchamp, solr, seconded by Mr Alfred Allen; and in the second paper he was proposed by Mr Wm L...

Albert Harris.

Second Rank—Leonard Pritchard, Charles Baillie, Nellie Rice, Rose Gertrude Dawson, Lizzie Magi Mophead Christina Higgins, Alic Harry King, Bob Gullen.

FIRST CLASS.

First Rank—Jane King, Christi Charlie Magill, Maud Copley, Nevii Annie Magowan, George Holmes, Tom Willie Howell, Victor Boyd, Arthur Lila Vokes; Fanny Boveniser, Ruth Victor Parker, Phelini Magowan Parker.

Second Rank—Thirza Baillir, Joni Sarah Shute, Arthur Moorehead, Willie Hattie Young, Fanny Young, Lily May Vokes.

A RAILWAY PORTER SERIO ASSAULTED.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT)

Ennistymon, T

This evening about seven o'clock porter on the West Clare Line at En named Martin Kelleher, was seriously with a stone by a man named Cuggern to the town. The assault took p Kelleher's house, close to the stati public road. Cuggern was passing in milk when some altercation took plac seem, and soon after Cuggern, as alleg a stone and struck Kelleher on the face a serious wound close to the Three of the police who had just co station, with Mr O'Brien, the station n others, arrived on the spot immedia Cuggern was arrested, having made resistance. There is said to be a mot arrest on the part of Cuggern, who is be of rather eccentric habits. His sist America last week, and while the trai she travelled was steaming out of th he held on to the footboard. own safety the porter took him off, supposed that in consequence he revenge against Kelleher.

THE RECENT FROSTS AND THE CROP.

Our Kilrush correspondent wr potatoes, especially in "bruckish," re low-lying grounds, have been several throughout West Clare by the sev which prevailed on the nights of Mor day, and Wednesday of this week. Milton and Ennistymon whole ga been burnt up, also towards Carrigahol and Kilkee.

Our Kilmallock correspondent wr frost did a great deal of harm to the e and in many cases it cut them d ground. Champions have not suffere very little of them round here are in condition. Some of the green crops ar too well this year. The mangold crop promising in consequence of the conti and the soil being very cold. Suns much needed to hurry on the matur potatoes.

FISHING AT CASTLECONN

The water has dropped a good dea is again on the improving line. On I E Harland killed one salmon, 21lb Lieut-Col Dixon one salmon 17lbs, salmon, 12, 13, 16, and 19lbs, on the salmon, 9 and 18lbs, on 22nd. Mrs one salmon, 14lbs, on 24th; and Mr two salmon, 10 and 18lbs, on 24th. General Cooke killed one salmon, 13 On New...