

(Langsom, 1873), was only son of the late fonsell, Esq. of Tervoe, who married in a, eldest daughter of Sir Hunt Walsh, allykillcavan, and died in 1822. Lord n 1812, married in 1836 Lady Anna ghter of the second Earl of Dunraven, 1 gave birth to a son and heir, but he 5. Her ladyship died in 1855. In 1857 y married Berthe, daughter of the Montigny, one of the most distin- ases of the ancient aristocracy of France rriage two children were born—The n William Thomas Monsell, J P, D L, succeeds to the peerage as id Baron Emly, born March, ed in 1881 a sister of Count De La s, the 16th Lord Power of Curragh- married in 1881, the Hon Mary Olivia ly daughter of the late Lord Emly. deceased nobleman's consort, who land venerated for her kindly and disposition, passed away at Tervoe rred at the family vault at Killeedy Lord Emly, who had reached the 2 years, had up to comparatively late ved a very active life, and in the rld was a very conspicuous figure. manhood he was a member of the erick Grand Jury, and afterwards that body. In 1835 he was High errick County, and by his high posi- ving espoused Liberal principles he popular in the county, and city also. t in the year 1847—a year when Irish died very considerable attention, and ameliorate the condition of the poor ountry had been discussed—Mr one of the candidates for the repre- the county errick. In his address rs he promised to "labour earnestly ctical measures, the postponement of or another year will involve us in ruin; for the development of our and manufacturing resources; for n of railways, for the encouragement It is important to note the interest atred in the land question, for Mr nised "to support a system of t which will secure to the occupier for permanent improvement on his was opposed by Mr George John o dated his address from "Crescent, August, 1847." Mr William Smith of the representatives for Limerick s Parliament, was opposed by Mr l, and the election which was terrific excitement, resulted in the sell by 538 votes, O'Brien 482, and entlemen were declared by the f, Sir David Roche, elected of the shire to represent errick in the Imperial Parliament" e-throwing, and other "merry- the order of these days, and one reports of the proceedings in the Chronicle with mingled feelings of d surprise. In his letter of thanks te, Mr Monsell said with reference ous and respectable portion of his hose conscientious and long- nions were known to be in favour Union, that he was most ready "to stic legislation limited to domestic rever he could do so." He also t would be his "earnest endeavour cease largely the number of Irish in the Imperial Parliament, but e for his country.

board, that was no reason why he should not stand up and propose the adjournment of the meeting. He, therefore, proposed that they now adjourn as a tribute of respect to the memory of the late Lord Emly.

Mr William Fitzgerald begged to second the proposition, and the board adjourned accordingly.

At the meeting of the Glin School Board to-day, Mr D F M'Namara said as the most pressing business had now been transacted, he wished to propose a resolution. He was sorry to say that the Lieutenant of the County Limerick was dead, and he thought all public boards should adjourn as a mark of respect. He understood the Sanitary Board to-day had also adjourned. He begged to move the adjournment of the Board, and a vote of condolence to be forwarded to the Hon Mr Monsell. Mr Piggott seconded. Mr M'Namara's proposition, which was agreed to.

At the police court this morning Mr Irwin, R M. alluded in sympathetic terms to the death of Lord Emly, Lieutenant of the County, and as a mark of respect to his memory he would adjourn the court after the custody cases were disposed of. He was sure that the people generally showed the regret which he himself felt at the death of such a distinguished member of the community.

DEATH OF MRS PHELPS, WILLOW BANK.

A pang of grief will be experienced amongst a host of friends at the unexpected demise of Mrs Mary Phelps, widow of the late Mr J J Phelps, which took place this morning at Willow Bank, after a brief illness. It was only quite recently that Mrs Phelps was in the city, and appeared in her usual good health. The deceased lady was held in the highest esteem in the locality which her presence so long graced, and her charity and consideration for the poor were proverbial. We deeply sympathise with her family in their great sorrow.

FASHIONABLE MARRIAGE AT KILMALLOCK.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

On Tuesday, at the new R C Church Kilmallock, Miss Nanette M O'Sullivan, daughter of the late W H O'Sullivan, Esq, M P, was married to M J Carroll, Esq, V S, of this town. The ceremony was performed by Rev P Carroll, C C, Croom (cousin of the bridegroom), assisted by the Rev Dr Meehan, P P, Kilmallock. The bride, who was given away by her brother, Mr T J O'Sullivan, was attired in a very handsome cream Ottoman silk gown, with flowers and veil of Limerick lace. Dr J Carroll, of Sheffield, (brother of the bridegroom) acted as best man. The bridesmaids wore very pretty costumes of electric blue poplin, and fawn basket cloth, with hats to match. They also wore pearl and gold swallow broaches, the gift of the bridegroom. The bouquets for the bride and bridesmaids were presented by Mr J Baker, of Mount Coote. The presents, which were numerous and costly, included the following:—Silver dessert knives and forks, Mrs W H O'Sullivan; silver cake basket, Mr T M Madigan, Shanagolden; gold and turquoise ring, Mrs McKernan, Munster and Leinster Bank, Kilmallock; silver crumb tray and lifter, Miss L O'Sullivan; Russian leather writing case, Miss K O'Sullivan; cheque, Messrs T J and J J O'Sullivan, case of silver afternoon spoons and knives, Mr P J Hayes, Dingle; silver tray, tea-pot, sugar and cream jug; R Newe, Esq, London; oil painting, portrait of bridegroom, Miss O'Shea, George street, Limerick; silver mounted crown glass. Rev P Carroll, C C.

was the appointment of officers.

Mr Carroll proposed and Mr second d that Mr M J Nolan t man.

Mr Bourke proposed Mr W said Mr Noonan was a man he ne thing about, and to whom they a deal.

Mr J Coleman seconded this pr On a poll there voted for M Clarina, Messrs Carroll, Vanc Gabbett, M J Nolan, Curtin, O'Sul Nolan, O'Shaughnessy, Piggott, ar 12.

For Mr Noonan—Messrs, Clif Coleman, Lyons, Cleary, McIne Bourke, Kirby, McNamara, and V —11.

Mr Nolan declared himself thanked the Board for electing important position. He assured was with much diffidence he acc because he considered it very were it not that he would be as would extend him the same supp that they had extended to hi occasions during the past year o to preside as chairman he certain it. There was one matter he w wish to refer to, and that was tha he thought they ought not to penditure of any more money in (this institution until they had order (hear, hear). When it w order, when they found—if they that it was necessary to make fur then by all means let them do present he thought they shoul selves to what they had begun al

Mr Noonan also thanked his si Mr Fitzgibbon proposed Mr Fit chairman.

Mr D F McNamara seconded which was carried unanimously

Mr Curtin was elected to the de on the proposition of Mr Fitzger Mr Piggott.

The minutes were then read at

NENAGH UNION—T

(FROM OUR CORRESPON

Guardians present—Messrs V.C, presiding; Thomas O'Brien Willington, J P; Charles Finch, J J P; John Healy, J P; James O M'Soley, Michael Sheehy, Joh Martin Ryan, and John M'Corm

STATE OF THE HOUS

Admitted during week, 35; died, 1; remaining, 218; in in fever hospital, 1; able-bodied m 13; females, 20; general avera te, 3s 10½d; number of per relief for week, 572; correspon year, £645; cost of outdoor rel £34 15s 6d, being £8 7s 10d less ponding period last year.

FINANCIAL.

The Clerk reported that the co were examined during the week ing result:—Collector O'Brien l ing outstanding in his district Butler lodged £7, leaving £19 standing; Collector M'Keogh lod £270 uncollected. The arrear seed rate due in the different dis In Collector O'Brien's district, £ Butler's district, £86; and in Col district, £127. Balance to the cr dians, £1,091 1s 8d.

THE WATERWORKS

Chairman—Have w