

generally admitted that Lord Rosebly thing in venturing to Bir-stronghold of Mr Chamberlain, lion in his den, the Douglas in There are very few Liberals who to challenge Mr Chamberlain to for he has no superior as a platamongst political men. Lord not a platform speaker by any the efforts he has made in that since his accession to the Premier-not had the result of raising his adding to the strength of the Party When Lord Rosebery had relieved ce at Birmingham it was felt he delivered himself into the hands of lines. Englishmen do not like named personal attacks. They a brilliant, hard-hitting, telling.
 erance, demolishing the opponent's t letting his personal character it and humour may be employed, ust be in a high level, and worthy ion and the man. The polished be used, not the burglar's bludgeon.
 two men in modern times have o fiercely as Mr Gladstone and Mr en the latter was in the House of Each took care to respect his nd no matter what the whirlwind might be he left no loop-hole for possible. Far different was the ted by Lord Rosebery. Instead of the policy of his Party and show-in addition to this encumbrance, the unfortunate tenant has had to struggle to maintain seven stepchildren." Our live contemporary is (says the Globe) fully justified in exposing the absurdity of these simultaneous appeals for sympathy on the ground of age [and youth, when the "children" must be at least semi-centenarians.

The letter of Mr Thomas King, re Kilkee, is unavoidably held over to next issue.

The salvage steamer "Etna" has been at work on the cargo of the "Port Yarroch" for the past three weeks. Up to the present about fifty tons of copper ore has been recovered.

The employees of the Limerick Army Clothing Factory resumed work yesterday morning and since then the "busy hum of industry" resounds throughout the building as usual.

While some children were crossing a field on their way home from a school near Lixnaw a young bull ran at them and injured a little boy named Moynihan. Moynihan was knocked down, and the bull drove one of his horns into his side.

THE FATALITY NEAR ELTON.—On Saturday
 Mr John S Casey, Coroner for the Co. Limerick, held an inquiry at Elton into the death of William Regan, who was killed by being run over by the train at Ballinasculla, near Elton.
 The jury found a verdict of suicide while suffering from temporary insanity.

CITY POLICE COURT.—Mr Irwin, R M, presided at this court to-day. Constable McHugh charged John Bourke with being drunk in George street on the 4th inst. He was fined 2s 6d. A woman named Margaret Brown was charged by Constable McHugh with being drunk. Defendant, who received a very bad character, was ordered to find bail, herself in £10 and two sureties of £5 each, or to go to gaol for three months.

WASTE PAPER IN THE STREETS.—Our attention has again been directed to the practice of throwing out papers on the streets. They were blown about by the wind in George's street to-day and certainly looked an unsightly spectacle. Until the Corporation take some decisive action by way of a prosecution for making the public thorough-

James G Boyd (St Michael's), 857, Val
 Laura Goggin (St Mary's), 766, " Sarah A Watts (Trinity), 751, " Louisa Goggin (St Mary's), 725 "

SEVENTH CLASS—MAX 1,000
 Silver Medal.

Henry Powell (Trinity), 86
 Book Prizes.

Charles Henry (Kilcornan), 791
 Drew (Kilcornan), 766; Alice Harde 694; Susan Hanrahan (Trinity),
 Jeffers (Trinity), 641; Henry Cot John's); 572.

The Bishop's Prize Bibles, fall (Trinity), and to Georgina cornan), being the boy and girl who answerers at the Medal Examinat seventh or highest class in the Sun of the diocese for the year.

SIXTH CLASS—MAX. 1,000.
 Silver Medal.

Annie Boyd, (St Michael's),
 Book Prizes.

Mary Ruddle (Trinity). 751; Eli (Trinity), 741; Mary Kidd (Tr
 Edward Redding (Clarina). 724; J (Trinity), 695; Henry Buchanan (S 657; Margaret Wilkinson (Trinity), Cotter (Ardcanny), 635; Mary Willia 619; Alice Johnston (Trinity), Smyth (Ardcanny), 505, and Mar
 (Trinity), 505, equal; Norman Palan
 448; Edward Stokes (Trinity), 443
 Myles (Trinity), 385.

FIFTH CLASS—MAX. 1,000
 Silver Medal.

Melbourne Sandwith (Trinity)
 Book Prizes.

Joseph Groves (Trinity), 883; (Trinity), 814; Sophia Shore (Ch
 Ernest Clement (Trinity), 783; L (Rathkeale), 766; Eileen Harvey (I Elsie Drew (Kilcornan), 746; Ed (Trinity), 737; Dalby Hackett (Kiln Mary Wilson (Trinity), 706; Mary Munchin's), 683; Henry George Smi 646; Edith Parsons (Clarina), 6
 Powell (Trinity), 614, Rebecca S Sn 614, equal; Millicent Shaw (Trinity) Sheehy (Trinity), 583; Daisy Sto 571; Muriel Griffin (Askeaton), 566; (Ardcanny), 557; John Hunt (I
 Susan Smyth (Kilcornan), 520; W (Rathkeale), 503; John Healy (I (Rathkeale), 500