Very general and widespread regret is felt at his early demise, in the prime of life, and to his family we tender our sincere sympathy in the severe trial which it has pleased Providence to visit them with. In the midst of this grief it must, however, be a matter of some consolation to know that amongst high and low he was held in the highest esteem, and his memory will not be easil, effaced in the minds of those with whom he was acquainted.

FUNERAL OF COLONEL JOHN L. VINCENT.

The funeral of Colonel John Love Vincent, late 5th Fusiliers, younger son of the late Mr Berkeley Vincent, Summerhill, Co. Clare, took place on Wednesday. The remains were conveyed by train from Kilkee, and at the "Long Pavement" station were received by Colonel Vincent, brother of the deceased, and other relatives, as well as very many friends from the city and the districts of Castleconnell and Clonlara. The interment took place at the family vault at Cloniara. The colonel and officers of the deceased gentleman's regiment, stationed at Aldershot, wrote expressing their condolence and regretting their inability to be present at the funeral.

Mrs John Vincent wishes to acknowledge with her sincerest thanks wreaths and flowers sent by Mrs O'Grady, Erinagh, Mrs Baxendale, Blackmon End, Herts; Mrs Phelps and Miss Phelps, Waterpark; Mrs Nugent, Ballinacourty; Miss Rich, Shannon View; Mrs Gelston and the Messrs Gelston, G orge street; the Misses Kirkwood and Miss Plunkett, Ballybrack; Miss Mahony, Miss H Hartigan, Miss H O'Grady, Mrs Oakes, Kilkee; Mrs Goold, and from Summerhill.

THE LUDWIG OPERATIC PARTY.

It will be seen by advertisement that on Friday and Saturday next, 28th and 29th, the Ludwig Operatic Company will give a Grand Concert and Costume Recital at the Theatre Royal. programme will include the second act of The Flying Dutchman, the prison scene from Maritana, and Lecocg's operatta, My New Maid. diversified and attractive programme should draw crowded houses, and we feel certain that the presence of the great Irish baritone will be a sufficient guarantee that this will be the case. It is now some years since Mr Ludwig visited Limerick, and we can promise him a hearty reception from a local audience.
