POISONING OF DOGS AT CASTLECONNELL.

of the recent wholesale sale by poison at Castleconnell, a racing club was held on the following resolution was proposed, seconded by Mr T Wilmut, unanimously:—"That we, the Castleconnell Coursing Club, be disgraced by the conduct of those who spread poison in the locality, and in opinion that it was done in the name of the blame thrown on the club."

CREAMERY MARKET.

Report for week ending 18th inst.
 Thursday Copenhagen advanced to top quotation to 95s 3d. There is a strong demand here for choice butter to 103s. To-day demand was to 103s. Carelessly made butter, or stale butters, will not be accepted at low prices, such as no one would buy if they would sell fresh, and workers. From 12th to 18th here 32 at 103s, 170 at 102s, 100s, 42 at 98s, 5 at 97s, 5 at 93s, 2 at 92s, 3 at 91, 5 at 90s, 7
 For all of which cash was received at sale, as usual. It must be the supporters of the market to those who send their butter direct to wait a week or more and their money, boasting of their profit to be less than any good home here, and have his cash in the direct shipper's goods have estimation. Send in your goods to have your money at once, and to attend to your end of the work; you will have cash on hands to struggle on in debt and anxiety."

THE JAM TRADE.

Our contemporary, the London their issue of the 13th inst., contains reference to another gigantic "Lipton In The Jam Trade," which interests our readers: "The interview which goes to show the 'Jam Trade' is the enterprise personally. That go-ahead man is to revolutionise the Jam trade; to cultivate English fruit very much; this he is a public benefactor, and encouragement."

Dr. Joseph Thomas Harty, a distinguished medical practitioner at Loos, a retired master mariner named Bowden, near Loos on the 7th inst., the boat being capsized in a heavy sea. The boat was overturned yesterday near the supply. The jury returned that the boat was naturally drowned. Bowden's body to establish a memorial of the late Lord Arthur Hervey

 over £1,200. It has been de-instructed in the afternoon at their homes on reasonable terms. Address, "Educationist," this office.
