FOOTBALL.

L.P.Y.M.A. V. GARRYOWEN.

The above match was played yesterday in the Market Field, and resulted in a win for the cup holders by one drop goal and two tries to nil. Considering the importance of the match, and the charitable object for which it was held there was a somewhat poor attendance of spectators, many of whom had the meanness of escaping the moderate charge for admission by swarming the walls. The kick off was at 2.30, and the game was very even during the first half, neither side scoring. The P Y M A appeared to have a slight advantage in the forwards, but were too light in the backs. The ball was kept almost the whole of the first half in the centre of the field, and neither side could claim any marked advantage. After half time, however, the superiority of the home backs became more apparent, and notwithstanding that several penalties were awarded for forward play, the Garryowen men showed something like their old form in passing, and to this may be attributed the decided victory which they gained. About twenty minutes off time the Garryowen got the ball on the loose, and forced it over the line, T Lynch scoring a try. No goal resulted, and after a few minutes "Francis" shot a drop goal for Garryowen, over which there was a dispute. The referee, however, ruled it a poster, which under the new rules is a goal. Shortly after this T Lynch took possession, and passed to T O'Connor, who ran over the line near the touch post and secured the second try. The place kick was again fruitless, and play continued during the last five minutes in the Garryowen territory. Time was called without any further score. Those who
