In the Queen's Bench Division, yesterday, before Master Courtenay and a jury of six, damages were assessed at £50 in the case of Knox v Montgomery, in which the plaintiff, a widow lady from Belfast, brought the action to recover damages for breach of promise of marriage.
 The defendant, who, according to the plaintiff, had represented himself as having fallen in for a fortune of £10,000, had allowed judgment to go by default.
