

communications.

ements to secure insertion should be office before Twelve o'clock on Tuesdays, and Saturdays. Where no are already opened, small advertise-t be prepaid office orders and letters of credit made payable, and communications should be addressed to THE MANAGER ERICK CHRONICLE.

MERICK CHRONICLE

[ESTABLISHED 1786.]

7 EVENING, OCTOBER 27, 1894.

members of a community so ected with agricultural interests on of the citizens and the public as been centred during a portion out week upon the Munster Fair, lings and accessories. Many years centuries indeed before the ra, an old writer describing the try of that day, said "their talk is ." The bullocks, the cows, the he horses, dairying, and the Irish l Association have been before the e citizens and visitors, and form of thought and conversation. t, after all, the chief interests of a on of the community have under-change even after the lapse of ages. e first place to the old institution Munster Fair, it is to be noticed r from numbers the fair just held ed amongst the very largest of its ot the very largest itself. The rises was fully up to the average, found ready purchasers at rerices. The number of this class , and they were in demand. The might turn his attention to this vantage. In general there is no ovement marked by the fair, and ime there is little room for comhings are. There was a slight in prices for cattle as compared of the last two months. The was the first that has been held spices of the Irish Dairy Associa-a most remarkable success. The tries was large, and comprised on nearly every part of Ireland, y parts of England. It not only local butter exhibitions, but was be one of the largest ever held i Kingdom. There were no less ibits in butter alone, divided into s. The newly developed and ing Creamery Societies were esented, and entered into a Clonlara Petty Sessions were held yesterday before Mr Jones, R.M (in the chair), Mr H Massey Westropp, and Mr T McMahon, Cregan. There were no cases of interest for disposal.

It will be seen by advertisement that Evangelical Services will be held in the Congregational Church to-morrow evening at 6.30, and on week nights at 8. Mr Alexander Marshall, of Glasgow, will conduct them.

CITY POLICE COURT.—At this court to-day, before Mr J B Irwin, R.M, a man named James Burke was charged by Sergeant Mara with being drunk last night. He was fined 5s.

GLENTWORTH WARD.—Yesterday Mr James S.
Gaffney and Mr James Doyle, Solicitors, were nominated for the vacant Councillorship in the Glentworth Ward. The election will take place on the 5th November.

ACCIDENT.—A man named James Doyle was knocked down at the railway station yesterday by a waggon which was being shunted, but he escaped with a bruised side. He was conveyed to Barrington's Hospital for treatment.

HUNTING.—The County Limerick Hounds held their first meeting of the season yesterday at Ballinecty, and the weather was most unfavourable. There was a big muster of members of the Hunt. A good day's sports resulted in a kill.
Details in next issue.

ROYAL UNIVERSITY HONOURS.—The Royal University of Ireland has conferred Honorary Degrees to the Rev George R Buick, Mr W J Fitzpatrick, the well-known author of Irish historical works, and the Rev Denis Murphy, S.J, who has taken such a great interest in Irish Archæological research.

MILITARY MOVES.—Orders have been issued by the Adjutant-General for the 1st Battalion Manchester Regiment to leave Limerick on the 31st inst. for Preston; the 1st Royal Irish Regiment also on the 31st, to be moved from Birr to Limerick; and for the 2nd East Yorkshire to move on the 2nd November from Preston to Birr.

INFANTICIDE NEAR NEWCASTLE-WEST.—In connection with the recent case of infanticide near Newcastle-West, Head Constable O'Connor has arrested a girl named Geoghegan, who resided at Killoughteen, not far from where the body of the child was found. She is suspected of being the mother, and was on yesterday remanded for eight days, and taken in charge of two constables to Limerick Female Prison.

SOLICITORS' APPRENTICES EXAMINATION.—We are very pleased to notice that at the Intermediate Examination for Solicitors Apprentices Mr David E Ferguson took first place out of the eighteen candidates who were allowed the examination. Mr Ferguson is youngest son of the late Mr Ferguson, Q.C., of Garraduff, Newcastle West, County Court Judge for the West Riding Division of Cork. We congratulate the young gentleman on his distinguished success.

NEW JOURNAL.—The Musical Exchange Journal and Dramatic Observer is the title of a new weekly paper which will be issued every Wednesday. It gives promise of being very interesting to the dramatic and musical professions. The contents comprise pithy and very readable notes, and a variety of other literary matters.

of the Munster and Leinster Bank, I the managership of a new branch, which opened at Dromcollogher, in this co Craven has been 13 years connected bank in this city, and during that time himself a most active and courteous of who is held in the highest esteem b tomers of the Bank, and in private the goodwill of many private friends. all congratulate him on his promotion from ourselves, and we desire to men movement has been started by the Ma Denis F McNamara, T.C, for the purp senting Mr Craven with a suitable t The subscriptions are limited to 21, ar no doubt that cordial and general supp the result. Mr F St C Hobson and O'Dea, George-street, are treasurers.

CATHOLIC LITERARY INST DEBATING CLASS.

The usual weekly meeting of the held on Thursday night, Rev Dr O'Ric siding. Mr A Fox read a paper on t of Books." He said it was the duty men to become acquainted with th literature, and he instanced the works Griffin as the choice specimens. I mended "Charles O'Malley," and Dickens' humour, pathos, and kno human nature. He described the between Dickens and Thackeray, and the latter must not only be read, bu In his opinion George Eliott combined the qualities of both authors. The novels, and the works of Lytton a Haggard were also recommended. In advised the selection of the poets fr works most pleasure is to be derived.
Shakespeare, Sheridan and Goldsmith worthy of attention in the dramatic speaker considered it an imperative young men to study Irish history, and Dr Joyce was now producing a work in-worthy of the country. The essays some attention to Carlyle's "French Re and said that, in biography, Boswell's Johnson" stood pre-eminent. An i debate ensued in which Mr Close, Mr J Scallan, Mr Moylan, Mr O'Shea, Mr E O'Neill, and Mr Darmody, took part, af the President summed up. The next will be held on Thursday, November Mr J G Fogarty will read a paper
"Fralties of the Celt."

A WOMAN OF NO IMPORTAN

Mr H H Morell, one of the joint pro A Woman of No Importance Company, v pay its first visit to the Theatre Royal, during the week, commencing Novem the eldest son of the late Sir Morell M the famous throat specialist who att Emperor of Germany during his fatal ill to whose skill and untiring attention his patient owed many weeks of life, and ir tion of his services was awarded by her with the honour of knighthood. Many of the drama will be glad to learn that a performance of Oscar Wilde's celebrate Woman of No Importance, will be given o'clock on Saturday, November 10th. opportunity should not be missed.

LIMERICK GOLF CLUB.

The annual general meeting was Friday, 19th inst. The following g were elected officers for the coming Captain and president, A W Shaw; J E Murphy; secretaries, E G Pitt. R I