a Select Committee to inquire into the general question.

A telegram was read at the Privy Council Office yesterday stating that the Queen held a council yesterday at Halmoral, there being present Lord Kensington, Lord Tweedmouth, and Mr Bryce, with Sir Charles Lennox Peel, clerk of the council.

The tug-of-war team of the Dublin Metropolitan Police competed at the Govan Sports, Glas- gow, on Saturday, and defeated with the greatest ease a picked team of Highlanders and the crack team of the Glasgow Police. They returned to Dublin on Sunday.

On Saturday at Port Soderick, near Douglas, Isle of Man, a man known as Professor Taylor and two actors hired a boat which they soon found themselves unable to manage owing to the strength of the current. In response to their signals for help a fisherman went to them, but his aid was ineffectual, and the boat with its four occupants was carried out to sea. A life-boat went afterwards in pursuit, but in six hours' search could find no trace of the boat or the men.

Announcement of Births, Marriages and Deaths, not exceeding 5 lines (which must in all cases be duly authenticated), are charged 2s 6d each. For every additional line 6d.
