CYCLING.

THE COMMERCIAL BICYCLE CLUB.

his club held a 12-mile road race over the rien course, on Thursday evening last. The her was beautifully fine, and the spectators umerous as we have at any time seen at an t of the kind, and were rewarded by seeing ully fine contested race, which ended in favour ennelly, from the scratch mark, who rode in d form and won rather easily by a few ths. Allsopp, Marsh, and E Conyers finished bunch, and are a trio who have wonder-improved since last season. Next came pale and Mellroy wheel and wheel, just pas-Muleahy as the tape was reached. This pair ound to show better form in the next event a little more training; so will Muleahy, er and O'Connor. Mr Barnett acted as time-er and starter, a post he has satisfactorily lever since the club was formed. The High iff and Mr Spain acted as judges. Details :
