THE JAP-CHINEE WAR.

s interesting letter to the Times yesterday g Captain Younghusband says that all ed to ensure facility for the Japanese vance on Pekin is a good supply of warm g for the troops. According to the last om the East the Japanese have made nd proper provision for the bitter cold of uria, for the fur markets at Tientsin en visited by their agents for the past nths, and an enormous number of skins en purchased by them. The Japanese , except those recruited from Yezo and rthern part of Japan, are little able to nd severe cold; and the authorities have ell to remember that there is not much
