

was nobody in the house when she caught fire. That the deceased was ad- tal on the evening of the rned all over the back and this morning; death was exhaustion consequent on e had received. m said deceased's son had re was an oil lamp burn- other was sitting, and the it of this on to her cloths, ted the jury to return a died from shock and ex- in the burning she had re- verdict accordingly.

ALWAY IN SCARIFF DISTRICT.

circulated in the district of meeting for the 1st Novem- Scariff, for the purpose of Government the necessity in that "neglected part of aters add that never before district such a favourable ng their just demands are are no signatures to the ion is made of speakers on ether those responsible for in earnest or not, reasons show that such a project favour.

An excellent suggestion was h Gaffney, at a meeting ard yesterday, in connec- ch is very much required Owing to its unprotected have occurred from time to l the wonder is that some in the matter before this. unanimously decided to act posal, and erect a railing of the quay which up to unprotected and dangerous

ONOMY, are the celebrated ts, as sold by William Todd et the latest shapes and e price they would have to lass Corset in London. The La Perfection, The Bernhardt, and Adorosa.

in charge. He would ask the engineer his opinion of Reynolds, and he hoped the board would take the matter into consideration. It was the first occasion he had asked an increase of salary, or the first time he had supported an increase since he had been on the board. If Reynolds was in his (Mr Cleeve's) employment he did not think it would be overpaying him, or even doing him justice to give him £3.

Mr Gaffney seconded the motion. Mr Morony said he found Reynolds a reliable man, whom he could trust. He wished he could say that of the others in the employment. The proposition was passed unanimously.

THE CLARE PILOTS.
A complaint was made by a number of the Clare Castle pilots that a pilot named Thomas Kelly, who was ordered by the board to work with the body of pilots, refused to do so and had taken vessels up and down the Fergus.

Kelly having been called before the board and the complaint of the other pilots heard, a proposition by Mr Spillane, and seconded by Mr O'Mara, that Kelly should refund a sum of £6 pillo- age which he admitted having received, was adopted.

The Board adjourned.

FATAL BURNING ACCIDENT.

On Sunday a girl named Mary Hogarty, aged ten years, residing at Convent street, off Athlun- kard street, met with a sad fatality. While engaged preparing tea in the mother's absence for some younger children, her clothes caught fire. Being unable to do anything for herself, she ran into the street, and a man named Guerin came to her assistance, but by this time she was severely burned about the body. She was con- veyed to Barrington's Hospital, and attended by Dr Haran, but her injuries very soon had a fatal termination. An inquest was not considered necessary.

POLICE COURT.—No magistrates attended at the City Police Court this morning. Constable Egan had a man in custody charged with having assaulted him in Mungret street last night. It appears that Constable Egan was on duty in Broad street when he received information that accused was making a disturbance in a public- house in Mungret street. He proceeded to the place, in company with another Constable and arrested accused, who resisted violently, throw- ing himself on the ground and kicking the Con- stable. He also assaulted Constable Egan by biting his finger. The accused was brought before Mr S B Quin and remanded to next Petty Sessions.

threatened to sue him. The case was adjourned for a month, defen- dant promising not to interfere with complainant's people further.

TRESPASSING ON AN EVICTED FARM.
Mr H S Vandeleur, D L, charged John Crowley with allowing cattle to trespass on a farm at Fadmore, of which he was at one time tenant. Mr Hilliard, solr, said he appeared for Mr Vandeleur, and as their worships were aware, they had Crowley up week after week for tres- pass. The sum he was fined did not at all com- pensate his client for the damage committed. Crowley got all the value. In the present prose- cution he would ask their worships if he proved his case, to give, in addition to the fine per head, also costs. If they did not, Mr Vandeleur would only be at a serious loss in protecting his pro- perty.

Healy, a caretaker on the farm, proved to find- ing six calves, the property of Crowley, on the lands on the 21st of October; he delivered them to the defendant's son.

Mr Hilliard—I apply for 6d per head now, and 6s 6d costs.

Chairman—We will warn Crowley that in future we will give the costs you seek. We will at present only impose the ordinary fine.

Mr Hilliard—Your worships, I think that course most unfair towards Mr Vandeleur. He will only be at a loss in the case.

Chairman—It is simply an ordinary case of trespass, and we will treat it as such.

Mr Hilliard—It appears that my client only has to suffer.

Two men named Copley and Scanlan were fined 1s and costs each for trespassing on the lands of Mr W J Brew, Bellmie.

A young fellow named Patrick Ryan was brought up in custody, charged with being absent from his regiment in Sheffield for the past twenty days without furlough.

Detective-Constable Courtney, who arrested the accused, who is wearing the uniform of the 1st Battalion Connaught Rangers, said he had communicated with the military authorities.

An order was made that Ryan be detained until the escort would arrive, and then handed over to them.

SALE OF ETCHINGS, &c.—We direct the special attention of our readers to this important sale, which is now being held at the Mart, Thomas- street. The subjects are up to date, and are by some of our best men. This is a rare chance of securing good pictures. They can be seen each morning before sale.

IMPORTANT TO LADIES.—Madam Worth's Celebrated Guinea Corsets (black 25s) may be obtained from her Local Agents, Messrs Cannock and Co (Limited), Tinnerick. Dec. 1

a t V i t
c

c
l t o
b
w
E
L
E
w
f
w
a n
n
t h
y

k
C
E
S
f
t
C

E
a
R
E
w
i
n

V
A
f
c h
k
M
G

S
R
a
S
T