THE DUKE OF DEVONSHIRE AND LIBERAL UNIONISTS.

ALLIANCE OR FUSION?

The following correspondence has taken place between "A Liberal though a Unionist" writing from the above Club on Monday, and the Duke of Devonshire:—

WHAT THE WORLD SAYS.

The Queen is to go to Windsor Castle at a quarter past ten on Friday morning, and her Majesty will travel by special train to Gosport, where she is to embark on the Osborne Yard on board the Royal yacht Alberta for Osborne Harbour.

THE POISONING AT LAUREL HILL CONVENT.

SIR CHARLES CAMERON'S FINAL REPORT

SYMPATHY WITH THE COMMUNITY

The adjourned inquiry into the circumstances connected with the poisoning at Laurel Hill Convent, a summary of which, with the verdict, was given in our last issue, was held on Tuesday evening at the Convent.

LIMERICK BOARD OF GUARDIANS.

The usual weekly meeting of the Board of Guardians was held yesterday. Mr Thos Bourke, vice-chairman, presided, and there were also present—General Lloyd Clarina, Messrs R J Gabbett, James Frost, J P.

DIOCESAN SYNOD OF CASHEL

The Right Rev Dr Day, Bishop of Cashel, Emly, Waterford, and Lismore, presided at the annual meeting of the Diocesan synod of Cashel and Emly, held on Tuesday in the Cathedral.

AN ANTI-CAT CRUSADE.

It is narrated in the books that there is a species of cat in South America which is hereditarily incapable of indulging in nocturnal caterwauling.

THE CELEBRATED
ROYAL BAKING POWDER.

ABSOLUTELY PURE,
INDISPENSABLE FOR FINE COOKING.

FOR quick baking. Raises bread, biscuits, rolls, muffins and all kinds of cake without the aid of yeast, saleratus or cream of tartar, rendering them lighter, sweeter and more palatable and wholesome.

J. AND C. BOYD, LTD.