

feeling of deep sorrow prevailed in when the sad intelligence of Dr as was announced on Friday morning as in the prime of life, being only ears. About three weeks ago he was vn with rheumatic fever, and although cations set in, strong hopes were enat with his splendid physical constiould pull through. His death is a to the people, and in an especial the poor, to whom his professional re ever freely given, and his un- s charity to relieve their immediate e interment took place on Sunday, neral cortege was one of the largest ever left the town, people of all classes this tribute to the memory of one y sincerely esteemed and respected. at sympathy is expressed for his wife and young family in their truly sment.

rgy present were:—Very Rev Dean P.P., V.G., Newcastle; Rev Father C; Rev Father Kenrick, C.C., do; Rev inworth, C.C., the Seminary, do; Rev Leary, C.C., Ardagh; Rev Father C.C., Knockaderry.

of mourners were:—Wm J Cabill and (sons); P T Liston, sol, Rathkeale; hill (brothers-in-law).

t the general public were—Messrs John ), Newcastle; Michael McDonnell, sol, Dr John M Ambrose, Major Sheehy, as Pitts, Dr Nolan, Shanagolden; E P Ballineery; J E Culhane, do; George edy, J.P.; Dr Cronin, Ardagh; Dr Newcastle; J D Leahy, C.E.; Edward mes Brouder, James Culhane, P.L.G.; iston, Lisenisky House; Michael Barry, ward Sheehy, Michael Listen, Thomas ohn Byrnes, Clerk of Union; Patrick nessy, Timothy McMahon, Michl M'Coy, min, P.L.G.; Thomas Ambrose, P.L.G.; y, Chairman Newcastle West Board of s; Patrick Roche, E Harnett, D Ken- eph Cregan, Thomas Ambrose, Master s Workhouse; Edmond Lenane, James mes Liston, Ballynoe Castle; Michael e, D Burton, Michael O'Shaughnessy, DDonnell, Michael Culhane, W Phelan, Hurley, D Leonard, John Cussen, M J D Leyden, T Sheehy, V.S.; Denis Wm A Roche, M Roche, R Nash, John a, John Upton, Old Mill; Mathew y, P Madigan, Thomas Wright, Timothy C Harnett, Michael O'Mahony, J J /, Ballintemple; R Reidy, S Ambrose, lan, Michael Dooly, Edward Nugent, Bank; S C Binns, National Bank; J oghue, do; Robert Danaher, Athas; Sheehan, Rathkeale; William Hanly, Dawson, P.S.C.; Thomas Enright, Gort- n Nash, J.P. Lavan, James Cregan, Chas /, sol; Michael Duffy Patrick Scalan, trphy, John Kenneally, Michael Flynn, ibbon, R.O.; John Creede, James Quin, John Griffin, John Moore, Jas Madigan, M'Coy, J Costelloe, Michael Murphy, P D Nash, John Quin, Barry E Moore, D hnessy, Rathkeale; John Murphy, E y, Wm Hough, Thomas Moylan, Thomas ohn Crowe, M Gleeson, Thos O'Connor, /, P.L.G.

SUDDEN DEATH.

roner De Courcey held an inquest at 5 street last evening touching the death Hickie, aged thirty, who was found dea yesterday morning. From the evidence ad that Hickie suffered from apoplectic was in feeble health. On Sunday night d to bed at an early hour, another man ones sleeping with him. He complained d-past nine of being cold, and at his re- ones procured some extra clothing. The he-sequently fell asleep, and when he woke rning he found Hickie dead by his side.

of the magistrates and the public, being always most courteous to all who sought information at his hands. For some three years Mr M'Adam has been agent over Colonel O'Callaghan's estates in Clare. His demise in early manhood is deeply deplored, and the sincerest sympathy is expressed with his respected family in their poignant sorrow.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. JOHN NOLAN, J.P.

The funeral of the late Mr John Nolan, J.P., of Kilbane House, Limerick, took place on Sunday. It left the deceased gentleman's residence at two o'clock for the family burial-place at Ballysimon, and the cortege was of immense proportions, there having been no less than one hundred and seventy vehicles and a big attendance of representatives from almost every part of the county, as well as various districts in Clare. Numerous prominent citizens were also present, and it would be impossible to give a full list. We append the names of some of those who came under our notice. The chief mourners were:—Dr J R Nolan, James Nolan, and T J Nolan, sons; Solomon Frost, J.P., Sixmile Bridge, Thos Frost, Feenagh; Dr Edward Frost, Newmarket; John Frost, Coroner; SJO'Donoghue, brothers-in-law; Rev Wm Fitzgerald, C.C., Bulgaden; Rev John Fitzgerald, C.C., Patrickswell; Mr Patrick Fitzgerald, Messrs Michael, Patrick, William, and Thomas Fitzgerald, Mr Michael Naughton, Mr Pat Vaughan, cousins; Mr J L Frost; Mr John Frost, Messrs James, Thomas, Pat, Frank, and Cornelius Nolan, Mr Robert Ryan, Cratloe, nephews. The clergy present were—The Rev Denis Shanahan, P.P., St Patrick's; Rev E O'Carroll, C.C., do; Rev Daniel Breenahan, St Munchin's; Rev J Carroll, C.C., do. Amongst the general public were—Mr James Frost, J.P.; Mr Octavius Wallace, Mr J V Golden, Manager Munster and Leinster Bank; Mr John Guinane, J.P.; Mr T H Kenny, solr; Dr O'Brien, Clarina; Dr Mulcahy, Barrington's Hospital; Dr Shanahan, Dr Ryan, Castleconnell; Dr Humphreys and Dr O'Mara, the Mayor (Mr W M Nolan), the City High Sheriff; Mr D F M'Namara, P.L.G.; Mr Wm Frost, T.C., P.L.G.; Mr John Frost, P.L.G.; Mr J M'Inerney, Chairman Limerick Board of Guardians; Mr E C Winter, V.S.; Mr A O'Keefe, Mr A Hall, junr; Mr T M'Carthy, William-street; Mr Michael Geraghty, Mr W Nunan, Mr John M'Namara, Mr J J Browne, C.E.; Dr O'Sullivan, Dr Robert Holmes, Mr J O'Brien, Elen Terrace; Mr Hugh Coyle, Mr David Begley, Messrs O'Brien, Mulgrave-street; Mr John Purcell, Castleville; Rev R R Ross-Lewin, Newcastle; Mr George Dowling, Castleconnell; Mr F St C Hobson, Sub-Sheriff; Mr Ryan, O'Brien's Bridge; Mr John Browne, do; Mr Tom Lane, Mr M Lane, Mr R Brennan, Rate Collector; Mr H J Guinane, Clerk of the Union; Mr James Flynn, Alderman D.Ryan, Mr Thos Bourke, Wickham-street; Mr J O'Donnell, T.C.; Mr Joseph Gaffney, T.C.; Messrs M'Coy, solrs; Mr P Moloney, Greenpark; Mr Wm Leonard, Mr Riordan, V.S.; Mr T Hartigan, P.L.G.; Mr Edward Dundon, Master Limerick Union; Mr P Lane, Quinpool; Mr J Gleeson, Cahirdavin; Mr Wm Cullen, Morelands; Mr John Hardiman, Mr Wm Frost, Castlebank; Mr M Carr, Mr Hickey, Drumhana; Mr Wm Nunan, P.L.G.; Mr Tom Nunan, Newcastle; Mr David Kelly, Ballybricken; Mr James Kelly, do; Mr Pat O'Mally, Limerick; Mr Andrew Egan, Mr R Nix, P.L.G.; Mr Ned O'Grady, Mr Joseph O'Malley, B.E.; Mr James O'Malley, Mr John O'Brien, Assistant Clerk, Limerick Union.

Amongst those who sent carriages were—Mr Thomas E O'Brien, L and C.R.; Mr Edmund M Russell, Miltord; Rev R R Ross-Lewin, Mrs Enright, Castleconnell; Mr J Matterson, J.P.; Mr Norris Russell, Plassy.

DEATH OF MR LLOYD-APJOHN.

than Limerick, and the one was much smaller, and in proportion to the of patients, they had more land than Limerick. Then as regards the site of the proposed the other side of the railway, he understood objections had been raised, one of which difficulty of connecting it with the present Mr Roberts, the Board of Works engineer proposed to connect it by means tunnel or subway going under railway. When this suggestion was moved he (Mr Nash) was in favour of it, he thought perhaps it would be unnece- The expense of it would be very large own engineer (Mr Browne) had estimate between £800 and £1,000. This was, no c- very large sum, and he thought they sh- very careful before going to any unnece- pence. He was now of opinion that it would be met by erecting a high iron across the railway, such as might be- small railway stations, and if they requ- get cattle or stock in they could be bro- the back gate to the Roxboro'-road, a dis- perhaps 200 or 300 yards, which, he th- would answer very well. As to the actual was not in a position to speak, but he e- the Chairman could give them every infor-

The Chairman—Yes, I have gone over th- Mr Nash formally proposed his resoluti- Dean Bunbury—Has it been ascertai- 50 acres are required? I thought at l- doctor would be satisfied with less than; That is a great deal.

Mr Nash—This is 50 statute acres. Dean Bunbury—Yes, but s it necessary Dr O'Neill—It was the Inspectors w- gested 50 acres.

Dean Bunbury—What Inspectors? Dr O'Neill—Dr Courtenay and Dr O- We are supposed to have 35 acres here, b- the part built on is taken away we have r- than 15 acres.

Mr Herbert inquired about a two-ac- which he said had not been used exc- grazing a donkey. He thought it wou- occupation to a good many patients.

Dr O'Neill said the field was used patients in summer.

The Bishop asked the Chairman if give them any information on the matt-

The Chairman said at last meeting asked to go over the ground, and hav- experience in such matters he did so. first place, he might say that if they-t- lands he thoroughly agreed with Mr R- there was no necessity whatever for s- and that expense, which would cert- £1,000, they would save, or at least th- part of it, by not having a tunnel. T- no necessity for it because the great- the land would make a grazing farm- cows, and the result of their having th- reduce the expense of supplying mi- house. The greater portion of the- was fit for tillage, and could l- for raising crops. Of the thirty-t- acres which it contained, from 18 to 20- land, and the rest of it was low-lying, a- be suitable for meadowing, or would- excellent green crops. He had not the- knowing whether it was occasionally fic- it would give excellent green crops- wished to till it. The upland portion- able for pasture, for either sheep or dai- or for tillage. The land was well fenc- sent. On the one side there was the l- a d Limerick and Foynes Railway, wh- is a wall about 6½ feet high with ston- and on the Roxboro' side there is a wall- eight feet high. At the west side th- la ge drain which, however, would- fenced, and the only portion which requ- fenced was at the old road crossing the- and that would not be very expensi- idea would be to put a foot bridge the- they could go up Blackboy Pike, and th- a level crossing at the Junction of