to death on board. The smoke from the fire obscured the look-out, and the vessel, striking a rock, foundered immediately. Of all on board only one sailor, a German, clung to some wreckage for 18 hours while a storm was raging, and was at length rescued by the islanders. The captain, all the rest of the crew, and the only passenger, a Mr Jackson, were drowned.

FOOTBALL.

GALWAY V. L.P.Y.M.A.

This match, announced to be played at 2.45, had to be commenced at 1 o'clock the visitors having to get away by train. The change of the hour was due to the home team, who had to play two matches as well as play substitutes for nine men. Galway won by 3 goals to nil.

GARRYOWEN V. ROCKWELL.

The Garryowen, the Cup holders for six or seven years, journey to Cashel morning to play their first match of the season with Rockwell College. The latter team is one of the first in Munster, and showed good form last year. To-morrow's contest is interesting, and both sides will have to represent them.
