ss to Zeitun, which offers the re diest escape, is crowded with refugees, commen, women, and children, and fears are ed that they will be mas-cred. The lor of the six Powers sent their dragoday to the Palace, which is at the pree the centre of government to make resentations as may avert the massacre habitants of Zeitun and to call the Cabinet, in which he is said to have expressed his sympathies with Italy in her struggle with Africa. There was one event called the battle of Majuba Hill, and Mr John Morley had "several interviews" with members of the English Cabinet about that time. We do not remember, says the Globe, to have heard that he then "expressed his sympathies" for England in her "struggle in Africa."
