

...that is to say, Limerick, Cork, and ord." The statement of these four k merchants does not tally with that he mouth of the Chief Secretary, and sitive opinion is fortified by all the embers of the trade doing business in r. Equally explicit is the declaration e effects which may be feared as an le result of carrying out this Order. merchants already referred to are of that the administration of the order hamper, harass, and hinder sellers, as er the feeding and selling of pigs impossible. The breeder and feeder d little inducement to continue rearing ling on account of the very low range s in vogue for some time past, and any discouragement as would be caused s Order in Council would have et of causing them to give up pig feed-ogether. This would be a national une, meaning great loss to the farming ity and ruin to the Irish curing hich is already suffering heavily from ce Danish and other foreign competid all this without bringing adequate ge to anybody." Surely the authorities but pay attention to these series nts, so unanimously and forcibly d by all these best qualified to form rate opinion on the subject under con-on. The bacon trade, like all others ring from the fierce foreign competihas to encounter, and to enforce an hich is "unnecessary, impracticable,

...Michael Hayes, burglary; Edmund Noonan, stabbing; William Ryan, assaulting a dwelling house. City—John McElroy, embezzlement; Denis Hehir, larceny; James O'Connor, assault; Percival Atkins, assault; Patrick Dwyer, stabbing. The civil business is, we believe, comparatively light. A breach of promise action against a county Limerick polic-man, which it was anticipated would be heard here, has been fixed for trial in Cork at the present Assizes. The venue in four important Clare cases has been laid in Limerick city. Two of these are actions for slander.

ACCIDENT ON THE ICE.

GALLANT RESCUE BY A GRAMMAR SCHOOL BOY.

A Ludlow paper says—"An exciting scene was witnessed on the river Terne, Ludlow, on Wednesday, the 13th. A Grammar School boy named Roxby, venturing on rotten ice, went through into deep water, and being unable to swim he was in precarious position. Fortunately another of Mr Hastings's boys, G H B Rogers, happened to see him, and after a brave attempt saved him. Rogers lay on his face on the ice, and dragged at the sinking boy. The water came through the hole, and it seemed as if the brave lad would go in too, but bravery had its reward, and he succeeded in getting the drowning lad on to sound ice." G H B Rogers is eldest son of Beechey Rogers, Esq, Royal Navy, and grandson of the late Handel Rogers, of Limerick

SUDDEN DEATH OF A GARDENER.

On yesterday morning, about 7.30 pm, while Patrick Conway, gardener, in the employment of Lord Clarina, at Elm Park, was going to work as usual, he was observed by one of the men to stagger and fall. A herdsman ran to his assistance, and the poor man died in his arms; deceased, who was about 80 years of age, had been in Lord Clarina's employment about 20 years, and was thought most highly of by his Lordship.
 Dr Cleary, Coroner for the district, held an inquest on the body yesterday. The verdict returned was that the deceased man died of syncope, brought on by old age.

Madden, Hospital; T O'Dea, Luddenmore; D S O'Connell, G do; M O'Meara, Caherelly; R b-icken; J Riordan, Ballyvourn Caherdavan; W Ryan, Ballygo
 Blackwater; E Connolly, Ballin
 Hundred Acres; M Lane, Hay Cannock and Co.

CANNOCK AND COMPANY

The following is the report of be presented to the Share eighteenth annual general mee pany, to be held on the 27th ins of the Company, 138 George str

The net profits on the tradin off all bad and doubtful debts ar amount to £10,264 6s 10 1/2, which 3d. brought from last year's total of £13,080 11s 1d.

From this amount must be de Od—ad interim dividend at the per annum paid for half-year 1894. £247 1 1/2 Od interest on tures for same period at 4 1/2 per c and £202 10s Od, half-year's in D-bentures for half-year end 1895, leaving a balance of £9,23 the Directors recommend shall as follows:—

- To the payment of a further Di dend for the half-year ending 3 January, 1895, at the rate of 8 1/2 annum (free of income tax),
- To bonus of 1 per cent for the y (free of income tax) ...
- To write off from building accou To carry forward to next accoun Robert Clery, Esq, and Philip who retire by rotation from the eligible and offer themselves for The dividend warrants will be February.

By order of the Bo
 WILLIAM WA

IMPORTANT TO LADIES.—A Celebrated Guinea Corsets (bla obtained from her Local Agents and Co (Limited), Limerick.