DEATH OF MR. EDWARD JOHNSTON
GILDEA.

We regret to announce the death recently at his residence, Rudolf Strasse, Leipzig, Germany, of the above gentleman. The deceased will be remembered as late Governor of her Majesty's Prison at Naas, County Kildare, at a time which was amongst the most remarkable in Ireland—that of the Fenian Rising—and many of the prisoners connected with which Mr Gildea had under his care in this prison. On the occasion of the escape of the notorious Stephens from Harrold's Cross Prison, Mr Gildea was heard to say—"If the authorities had placed him under my charge he would not have so easily escaped." At that time the Governor was only about 28 years of age—a period of life rather youthful for such an important position. Mr Gildea was third son of the late E Irwin Gildea, Esq, of Weatherford, County Mayo; grandson of the late Captain Jones Gildea, Justice of Coram for Mayo and Sligo; great-grandson of the late Robert Hewitt, J.P, Snugborough, County Clare, and great-great-grandson of the late Harry Bridgeman, J.P, of Broadford Castle, County Clare, also Killadon, Killaderry, and Backfield. The late Governor of her Majesty's Prison at Naas, County Kildare, was elder brother of the late J Rudolph Gildea, Governor of her Majesty's Prison at Kilmalham, and later at her Majesty's Prison, Limerick, where he died in harness on January 10th, 1892.
