

d to be trans-twelve thousand xploit of which might well be and endurance surpassed. It is d at Gilghit, who is expected he is able to come difficulties of the the enemy posted er which lay in eing fortified by shed the bank of g, when his men erch. He waited
y a night's rest, the attack. The g been broken stream, carrying with them. The or an obstinate the British were The march was in being crossed, as relieved which the enemy for dy under General South and putting way. The most as been overcome, to be retreating pting any more v being attempted ould appear from sh announce the brother by a also seized a fort elp the British attended the ex-was thought to be There has been ng has so far been
ted. As a training ring and frontier assed. It would of a Napoleon to a little campaign at some German ails of one of our omed themselves battalions, spoke he British officers what themselves tlemen," said the ese men did not carriages." The noved does not jumping into summer costumes just yet. day was observed as a general holiday in Limerick, and the citizens, it need hardly be said, shook the city dust off their feet and betook themselves to the country. The excursion trains to Miltown-Mulbay and Lahinch were largely patronised, and Killaloe and Castle connell were thronged with visitors. Again, Banogue drew a big crowd, and those who wished to enjoy quiet and romantic scenery betook themselves to the Clare Glens, where a most enjoyable day was spent over the miniature cascades and under the shadows of the lofty trees. At night there were various amusements—the Theatre and the Circus included. So that, on the whole, Easter Monday was more than usually a successful holiday, and it can certainly be said that all who were enabled to enjoy it were thoroughly satisfied with themselves and everybody else.

The extensive sewerage works which are being constructed in Kilkee, under the direction of the Kilrush Board of Guardians, will, it is expected, be completed in June.

SALE OF DISTRESSED LADIES' WORK.—We publish in our advertising columns a list of the stallholders at the sale of Irish ladies' work to be held in the Athenaeum on Saturday next, the 20th instant. The sale promises to be a highly interesting one, and we have no doubt it will be most successful.

DEATH OF MR HEFFERNAN CONSIDINE.— We regret to announce the death of Mr Heffernan Considine, of Derk, in this county, which took place on the 14th instant at his residence, Earsfort Terrace, Dublin. The deceased, who had attained the ripe age of 79 years, was a very popular county gentleman. He served the office of High Sheriff of the county, and was an old member of the County Grand Jury. Latterly he had not taken part in public affairs. The deceased gentleman was father of Mr H F Considine, R.M., of Kilkenny.

ROYAL IRISH CONSTABULARY.—District-Inspector Rogers will shortly leave Nenagh for the Depot, where he has been appointed Musketry Instructor. District-Inspector Foley, who previously held the appointment, has been promoted to be a County Inspector. Acting-Sergeant Mulally has been transferred from Clonlough to Newport on promotion, to the rank of Sergeant, vice Acting-Sergeant Kearney. Constable Lannen has been transferred from the Depot to Rear Cross, vice Constable Healy, pensioned.
Const Considine, Newport, has retired on pension.

THEATRE ROYAL.

"IMPULSE."

This eminently successful comedy-drama was produced last night at the Theatre Royal, by Mr C W Garthorne's Company, and the representation in the hands of such an excellent troupe left nothing to be desired. The audience, however, was small, owing, no doubt, to the counter attractions in the city, but during the remainder of the week the Theatre Royal should be well patronised. The principal character, "Gentle Giant," was portrayed by Mr

At the meeting of the Easter Vestry the following were re-appointed Church Wardens for the year—Captain Frederick Verschoyle, Castle Troy; Edmund Russell, Milford, and the following select vestry—Joseph Matterson, Edmund Russell, R N Russell, General R Sadleir, H O Bayley, A Bannatyne, A Shaw, S Royas. R S S Ross-Lewin, Chairman.

FATHER M'DERMOTT'S SILVER JUBILEE

A very pleasant ceremony took place to-day in the Convent at the Franciscan Roman Catholic Church, the occasion being a presentation to the Rev Father M'Dermott, Guardian, to commemorate his silver jubilee. Amongst those present were—Rev Fr Burke, OS F; Rev Fr Hanway, do; Very Rev Father Anderson, O S A; Rev Fr Dundon, do; Rev Fr English, do; Rev Fr Brophy, do; Rev Father Coleman, O P; Rev Fr McCormack, do; Rev Fr Quigley, do; Rev Fr Layton, O M I; Rev Andrew Murphy, Dr J F Shanahan, Mr John Dundon, Mr J V Golden, Manager Munster and Leinster Bank; Mr Bryan O'Donnell, J P; Mr James Quin, J P; Mr Wm Lloyd, Mr Henry O'Shea, Mr Eugene Mahony, Mr P O'Connor, Mr S Hastings, Dr Holmes, Mr J Cahill, Mr A N Barnett, Mr E Clifford, Mr J Kivlehan, Mr Ralph Nash, solr, Mr J Guinane, J.P., Dr Graham, Mr J Anglim. The presentation consisted of an illuminated address, a portrait in oils of the rev. recipient, a remonstrance, and a set of vestments.
The result of the efforts of the committee was very gratifying, and subscriptions to the amount of £300 had been received for the purpose of the presentation. In honour of the event High Mass was celebrated this morning at eleven o'clock in the Franciscan chapel, the celebrant being the Rev Father Hanway, and the music was rendered by an augmented choir under the conductorship of Mr O'Mahony, organist. At half-past one o'clock the friends of Rev Father McDermott assembled in the library of the convent, the Mayor (Mr Wm M Nolan) presiding.
His worship, who made the presentation, expressed the pleasure he felt in performing such an interesting and pleasant duty, and hoped that many of them would live to assist at Father McDermott's golden jubilee (applause).

Mr J Dundon, solr, secretary, then read the address, to which Father McDermott replied in eloquent and touching terms. Subsequently the rev gentleman entertained those present at luncheon.

A SHIP CAPTAIN FINED £3 FOR ASSAULT.

At the police court this morning before the Mayor (Mr Nolan), and Mr S B Quin, Captain Max Falck, of the "Bandaneiro," was prosecuted by a sailor named John Purtil for having assaulted him on Saturday last when removing the vessel from the graving dock.

Mr Hall, solicitor, appeared for complainant, and Mr Doyle, solr, for defendant.

It appeared from the evidence of several witnesses for the prosecution that on the day in question the defendant gave an order to complainant which he did not hear. He then said "are you deaf?" and still receiving no reply, he went over to where complainant was standing and gave him several blows on the head with his fist, knocking him down. He also kicked him about the body when down.

Two witnesses, who were called for the defence, gave evidence to the effect that no assault was committed.

After hearing the evidence the magistrates decided on fining defendant £3, one pound to go to complainant as compensation.

Mr Quin said that in his opinion defendant got