SUDDEN DEATH.

Mr Coroner De Courcey held an inquest at 5 Denmark street last evening touching the death of Paul Hickie, aged thirty, who was found dead in bed yesterday morning. From the evidence it appeared that Hickie suffered from apoplectic fits, and was in feeble health. On Sunday night he retired to bed at an early hour, another man named Jones sleeping with him. He complained about half-past nine of being cold, and at his request Jones procured some extra clothing. The latter subsequently fell asleep, and when he woke next morning he found Hickie dead by his side. Medical evidence having been given by Dr John R Holmes, the jury returned a verdict of death from apoplexy. Head Constable McBrinn conducted the inquiry.

THE ARTS AND CRAFTS SOCIETY OF IRELAND.

The Mayor has received the following letter:—
"March 1st, 1895.

"SIR,—As Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Arts and Crafts Society of Ireland I write to inform you that it has been decided to hold an Exhibition of Irish Arts and Crafts in Dublin early in November in this year.

"May I hope that you will bring this matter before the different trades and guilds in your city, in order that possible exhibitors may be informed in good time as to the scope and nature of the movement.

"We have received the hearty support of the Corporation of Dublin, the Royal Dublin Society, the Dublin Chamber of Commerce, The Royal Institute of Architects of Ireland, and the Trades Council, all of which bodies are represented on our Committee.

"I hope, therefore, that you will extend to us the same support, and that, if possible, one of your body be represented on our Executive Committee.—I have the honour to be, sir, your obedient servant,

"MAYO.
