EAK OF NATURE. reak of nature has just been in the shape of a heifer, nearly longing to Mr M. Lazamick, of ow. The animal was born at a ut its birth was kept a profound fear of local superstition, up to ago, when the animal was ttle dealer, who then put it reenhithe. There the present d at once concluded arrange-phase. The heifer is of a light itly formed, but there is a fifth engh and size, protruding from shoulder, and at the end two e animal five legs and six feet.
 h is of an ordinary growth, d by a veterinary surgeon, who it was in sound health, and was
