off the kitchen. Her assistant shop-girl being aroused by the noise occasioned by the burglar in his descent through the chimney, fled into the apartment of her mistress, locking and barricading the door after her. The door was, however, attacked by the marauders, but it resisted their onslaught, and eventually they contented themselves by taking away all the money found in the shop, as well as a considerable quantity of drink. They succeeded in effecting their escape with the booty, but the police are diligently on their trail.
