

sacrifices, but the Conservatives re sacrifices, and the Liberal the satisfaction of knowing offices had produced the result attain, and the alliance had people that the Conservative t a reactionary party, that might be strenuous in their e revolutionary changes, they ad to reasonable and necessary were able to show that the of a legislation, the material general contentment of the ld be more surely and comed through the instrumentality st alliance than through any of log-rolling and cupfilling earch of a cry." For nine years sections had defeated their l had preserved the Unionist y could now look forward with ictory, " and might contemplate egislature, which would conly more to the happiness of the eople than the destruction of ruin of industrious tradesmen, olition of the Second Chamber." kely that the alliance between es in the State will be connected than ever, and that the next l see " the responsibility and r shared between the two sections it party," and the designation of vernment will be " Unionist " ile. Such a party combining all Liberalism, in union with Con-uld form the strongest power the interests of the nation that has yet seen.

service will be held in St. Mary's Wednesday, 28th instant, at 8 The Rev Canon Carmichel, of each on the occasion.

" M & E Cann," owned by Mr n of this city, which sailed from th ult, arrived at Miramicho on to load a cargo of deals for Spaight and Sons, Limited.

festival of Dublin choirs was held evening in S. Patrick's Cathedral, ists being represented. There was mgregation, and the singing was and devotional in character. The Limerick was the special preacher.

NON HOTEL, CASTLECONNELL.— Routledge, D I, R I C; Mrs J W Stancliffe, Mrs F A Ingham, r Hall. Departures—General A C lr Higinbottom, Mrs Higinbottom, tom, Mr Kenworthy.

Gaynor, George Matterson and Ian Matt rson, (Kilmurry); George Chimes, Charles Polligton, Arthur O'Hanlon, Fanny Bovenizer.

Second Rank—Rose Fleming, Louisa Simpson, Alice H Imes, Gertrude Dawson, Patrick Pollexfen, Tom O'Hanlan, William Holmes, Charles Parker.

FIRST RANK—SENIOR DIVISION.

First Rank—William Young, Hallie Young, Rosie Chimes, Luke Hawker, Willie Pollexfen, Fred Pollexfen, Fanny Young, Olive Chimes, Sarah Shute.

Second Rank—Arthur Moorhead, Lily Pritchard.

FIRST RANK—JUNIOR DIVISION.

First Rank—Harry Ievers, Rose Booth, Louie Gullen, Kate Booth, Eva Holmes, Annie Madders, Elsie Pritchard.

N.B.—Those marked (*) are entitled to compete at the medal examination in Protestant Orphan Hall, on 24th inst.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE REV. W. F.
 MAUNSELL.

The funeral of the late Rev W. F. Maunsell, B.A, Incumbent of Kildimo, left his residence yesterday morning for St Munchin's, Limerick, where the remains were interred in the family vault. The cortege was of a very large and thoroughly representative character, the gentry and farming classes of the surrounding district having assembled to pay a last mark of respect to the memory of the venerable gentleman, whose whole life, it may be said, has been spent amongst them. The deceased gentleman was head of the local schools for over 30 years. He was held in the highest regard by all the pupils past and present, a large number of whom were present yesterday to take farewell of their old and esteemed pastor. The coffin was borne for nearly two miles from Kildimo. The chief mourners were—Rev Lewis Maunsell, brother of the deceased; Lieutenant-Colonel W D Maunsell, R A, son; Major Arthur Maunsell, nephew; Mr S F Dickson, D L, brother-in-law; and Mr J C Cooper, J P, Cooper Hill. Amongst the general public were—The Dean of Limerick, Canon Gregg, Canon Dann, Rev R R Ross-Lewin, Rev R H Cotter, Mr W L Hunt, Mr T D Atkinson, J P, Mr George Gloster, Mr J Green, Mr John Morton, Mr Wm M. Beauchamp, Mr A White, Colonel O'Donnell, Mr W O'Connell, Mr W Armstrong, Mr George Taylor, Hollypark; Mr F Finch, Captain Vanderkiste, Mr W Christy, Captain Caulfield, Mr Peter Griffin, J P; Mr Frank Fosbery, Lieut-Col. Gloster, Mr James M'Mahon, Newpallas; Mr W Waller, D L; Mr John M'Auliffe, Mr Michael Roche, Lieut-Col.
 Maunsell, J P, George-street; Mr Maunsell, Drehidarsna; Mr John F Sheehy, Court; Mr James Sheehy, Mr Perse, post office, Kildimo; Mr Cahill, Mr Burns. The officiating clergy were the Rev Canon Dann, Canon Gregg, and Rev T B Robertson. A large number of friends sent carriages.

IRISH UNIONIST ALLIANCE.

REGISTRATION.

All Unionists who are entitled to vote at elections for members of Parliament, and whose names are not on the Register, are particularly requested to send their names, addresses, and qualifications to Mr A Blood Symth, 47 George street, Limerick, at once, when steps will be taken to have their names duly registered as voters.
 A person may be qualified to vote either as a rated occupier, an inhabitant householder, or as a lodger. In case of any person being in doubt as to his qualification, it would be better to state the facts, and a claim in the proper form will be lodged.

by their visit to "Garryowen." Aft innumerable articles of a fancy an character, as well as flowers and countr went very cheaply, and even greater bar be looked forward to to-night (Saturd the Fair will be brought to a conclus may remark that the money taken a was lodged in the branch of the Provin which is erected midway at the entranc the hall, and business was most sati carried out under the superintendenc manager, Mr John Morton. Lar was a repetition of the previous evening the attendance was concerned. The an outside in the Corn Market, such Horses, Swinging Boats, and Merry-were enjoyed by thousands, and the which were illuminated with count lamps, presented an exceedingly anti pearance. The attractions were enha brilliant display of fire works, by Ho the Market Field. These included ascent, an aerial bombardment, and oth We should have stated that on Thurs there was a demonstration by the Co Fire Brigade, and under the direction Wylde there was a fire men's drill, illustrations showing how people are s burning. In our previous issue we r the indoor amusements, and we have o that the utmost credit is due to M Irwin, the conductor of the "Cafe C entertainments, Mr J F Murray, who and trained the Garryowen Minstrels, Muspratt, the conductor of the capi orchestral band specially trained for owen." Where all worked so unselfish the utmost ardour, in making "Garryo unprecedented success that it has pro it is not an easy task to make tion of those deserving the most speaking, however, at random, we ma those amongst whom the lion's sha work fell included Dr Wm Fogerty, I Fogerty, Mr R. Fogarty, C.E, who des Fair; Mr John Hayes, the contractor down the flooring and other works Wormersley, of Leeds, the decorators; Shaw, whose services at the Restau most valuable, and it may be add that all were delighted with the arra and the excellence of the cuisine. Com amusements, the Theatre arrangem admirably managed by Mr Peter F Messrs Gaffney, Mr Courtenay Croker, son, Mr Goodbody, and Mr Fog the "Cafe," Mrs and the Misses were ably assisted by a number of g and Mr Andrew Murray, who was locat the door, did yeoman's service in procl attractions which were to be found w W B Fitt and Mr A J Eakins were most as stewards in the ball room. A Punch Show was held here in the day time. door entertainments, Messrs J O'Grady A J Eakins, L R Switzer, and Major Ke the guiding stars, and at the entrance, H Pitt, Mr Goodbody, and others had ur an unenviable time of it. Allog various departments were excellently with one exception, which some means should have been for having a second entrance main building into the Corn Market. sage was simply blocked at night b patient throng, and we can easily what a state of things such as this me by no means comfortable, to say the We may say, in conclusion, that wh regarded as a very interesting sou Fair is the official programme, which out in the most artistic manner by, a the highest credit on, Messrs Guy and The outer cover is illuminated and o