

government in the matter, they have g with two other Powers, but they ontinually making representations to bring the last few years, sometimes vernment, sometimes with another. ntations which have been made lately ontinuanee of that policy.

ION BOWLES—Is it not a fact that le 61 there is no obligation whatever ountry.

LEY—The hon member must form nion as to the scopes of the articles nd hear, hear).

HOUSE OF LORDS' RESOLUTION.

ON BOWLES asked the Chancellor of quer whether her Majesty's Governed this session to submit to this resolution relative to the House of t forth by the Prime Minister in his radford on the 28th October, 1894?

HARCOURT—Yes, sir (laughter and cheers).

ADVANCES OF POSTAL EMPLOYEES.

LEY asked the Postmaster-General could state when the committee to the alleged grievances of postal em-appointed, also the names of those mprise it.

LD MORLEY replied that he was happy t he had secured the co-operation of mouth as chairman. The members of tee were—Sir Francis Mowatt, Sir A. r Spencer Walker, and Mr Llewellyn our Commissioner to the Board of e committee held a preliminary meet-

LEY—Is the inquiry to be a public LEY said newspaper reporters would d, and he understood arrangements be made for the admission in a ree of the general public.

BUSINESS OF THE HOUSE.

to Mr Balfour,

HARCOURT said the motion he intended Thursday would be put on the paper t was practically the same motion le on the 31st of May last year. With the business of Friday he desired to rangement by which there should be y each week for the taking of supply. on of Thursday were agreed to Friday cupied with supply.

GOVERNMENT OF NEW SOUTH WALES.

LEY asked the Chancellor of the Ex-ether any appointment had been made rnorship of New South Wales?

HARCOURT asked for notice of the ques-

THE LOCAL VETO BILL.

onical cheers and laughter, Mr Gerald ented a petition signed by 10,000 inof Brighton against the Local Veto

RURAL ADVERTISEMENTS.

to authorise County Councils to frame r regulating advertising display in ies was brought in by Mr Boulnois, first time.

THE CROFTERS BILL.

otion for the second reading of this raham Murray submitted an amend-ng forth that in the opinion of the present Bill, while interfering actual rights without adequate neither provided means for vement of the material cone poorer crofters and cottiers in the and the alleviation of the distress due inducy of population in the overwshhips, nor was it calculated to e difficulties which had in recent between the different classes of the now, as ever, on Wednesday and Friday. Then there is the Garryowen Theatre with operettas, Living Pictures, Punch and Judy.

The Garryowen Minstrels have a programme including a novelty entitled "Garryowen," specially arranged by Mr J. F. Murray. There is also a Garryowen Orchestra, embracing all our local performers. There are outdoor entertainments and military tournaments, a fire brigade demonstration, with a blaze of fireworks on Wednesday and Friday. Our advice to our citizens, therefore, is go early and go often.

Mr and Mrs R Croker and suite, New York, have arrived at Cruise's Royal Hotel.

A number of the members of the Constabulary Cycle Club had a run this evening to Sixmile-Bridge.

The election of Matron of the Limerick Union takes place to-morrow. The candidates include Mrs Monohan, Miss Lane, and Mrs Nix. It is impossible to say who will win, but Mrs Monohan's prospects of success are largely favoured.

QUARTER SESSIONS.—The business of the Quarter Sessions was continued to-day by his Honor, Mr Richard Adams, Q. C. The cases disposed of were of no public interest.

CHARGE OF STEALING A GOLD WATCH.—At the City Police Court this morning, before Mr Hickson, R.M., Sergeant Beatty had a man named Thomas M'Inerney in custody charged with the larceny of a lady's gold watch valued at £10, the property of Miss Bennett, of Catherine street. The sergeant deposed that the accused had been arrested on a charge of drunkenness, and on searching him the watch was found in his possession. He stated that he found it in Catherine street. Prisoner was remanded to City Petty Sessions.

DEATH OF THE REV. W. F. MAUNSELL.

We regret to announce the death of the Rev W F Maunsell, B.A., R.D., Incumbent of Kildimo, Co. Limerick, who passed away at his residence this morning after a brief illness. The deceased gentleman was the oldest clergyman in the diocese, having been ordained in 1843, and the whole of his sacred ministry has been spent here. He was a most popular clergyman, and highly respected by all classes and creeds.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY AT THE QUEEN'S HOTEL, ENNIS.

(FROM OUR CORRESPONDENT.)

The Queen's Hotel, Ennis, which was burglariously entered into a few weeks ago, a cash-box and overcoat being stolen from the coffee-room, was again the scene of a little excitement on Friday night, through another alarm of burglary. The proceedings of the thieves were quite as audacious as when the successful attempt was made. It seems that a little after 11 o'clock, p.m., two of the domestics who were in their apartments at the rear of the hotel, heard some noise in the room, and noticed a young fellow searching about the window. They raised an alarm, and the individual got through the window, joining a comrade whom they saw in the yard outside. Mr Murdoch, who was in the C H Fitt, is in green and Elizabeth Lady Barrington's Prodi-imitation of white marble; Mrs Rustic Flower Stall, in the centre, looks very pretty. At the end of splendid panoramic view of old Lis-in old Thomond Bridge and Curragh, below which are some Spanish galling their cargoes. It is really a of art, the coloring of the water a hills in the background, being re-fullest degree. Messrs Wormerse painted this highly interesting pic-believe, a drawing by Mr Donnella Not far from this panoramthe Theatre, which is elegan-with crimson seats, and there is little stage with artistic scen-this is situated the "Gridiron" is entered from the nearest end and one finds it gaily decorated, with little tables made attractive with flowers, are provided for the accom-sightseers, who may be quite cerwants of the "inner man" will be to. In the main grounds is the enclosed under a spacious marquee the corner at the right hand side is some photograph stall which will by Messrs Guy. The entrance to is planted with spruce, and in the there also is a profusion of tin Switchback Railway and a Merry-fitted up, and in the Market Field description, tournaments, and variations will take place. Judging by nary activity noticeable to-day we that the fair will on the open thoroughly complete, not to say picture. We feel certain there will big attendance, and we may observe that there is great demand for lodg-by the hosts of visitors who intend "Garryowen."

It will not be possible for us to length on the various amusement and outdoor, which take place in the Fair. In our advertisement evening will be found a list of the To-morrow and Thursday evenings tive programme will be performed room from 8.30 to 11 p.m. The Royal Irish Regiment will play on Friday and Saturday. The band Irish Constabulary will perform both during the day and at night.
Fair the Garryowen Minstrels and Orchestra will be heard, while the be in full swing, as also the "Ca-The programme simply abounds with of every conceivable kind.

THE DRESSED DOLLS COME

The judging of the Dolls Compe-nection with Miss Gladys Barrington "Garryowen," took place at Sun-kind permission of Mr and Mrs E Saturday in the presence of a large able concourse of spectators. The the list of prize-winners:—

Class I.—Brides—1st prize, Miss Glenstal, Limerick; 2nd Miss Rio-ville, Limerick.

Class II.—Babies—1st prize, Mrs 2nd, Miss Graham, Castlecrine.

Class III.—Children—1st prize, Summerville; 2nd, Miss Corbett,

Class III.—Nationalities—1st pri-Bristol; 2nd, Miss Le Patourel, road, London; 3rd, Miss M M Taviton-street, Gordon-square, I Miss Butler, Castlecrine. Sixmile B