

had been signalled on. The jury, however, did not consider him morally to blame, and condemned the system of working trains at March, and expressed the opinion that the footbridge across the line was a great source of danger.

THE ARMENIAN QUESTION.

Constantinople, Wednesday.

The present attitude of the Palace in favour of a general application of reform granted to the Armenian provinces, is due to the action of Russia. It is believed the new cause adopted by the Palace is intended to disarm the agitation in the highland quiet Armenian counties, and throw dust in the eyes of Europe.
