PRESENTATION AND ADDRESS REV. J. G. FAHY, WATERVILLE.

THE Rev J. G. Fahy, Rector of Waterville, and Mrs Fahy, were recipients of three presentations on the of their return home from their wedding in England.—A Study Clock, presented by the village inhabitants; an Epergne, a stand, presented by the Teacher and Children; and a Writing Table, presented by the Staff of the Commercial Cable.
The latter was accompanied by the Address:

DEAR SIR,
The Staff of the Commercial Cable beg to tender you their hearty congratulations upon the event of your recent marriage, thought it a fitting opportunity to occasion by assuring you of their esteem requesting your acceptance of the accompanying table as a wedding present.

It will, no doubt, be a source of gratification to you to find, on looking at the list of signatures, that they constitute the expression of feeling on the part of the staff, irrespective of creed or nationality.

We desire to convey our cordial gretings to Mrs Fahy, and conclude with wishing you a long and happy union attended by the of health and prosperity.

(47 signatures follow.)

REPLY.

GENTLEMEN,
It adds indeed very much to the happiness of Mrs Fahy and myself to receive from you such a warm welcome on the occasion of my return home. The value of such a handsome gift is much enhanced by the fact that it is an expression of esteem on the part of the staff, irrespective of creed or nationality.
I heartily thank you all for the kind expressions pressed in the address, and trust that both be long spared to have opportunities of usefulness in the parish.

Indeed, your kindness on this occasion always for both of us a happy memory and great encouragement to us in our future endeavour.
