ARMENIAN QUESTION.

ook place in the Senate yesterday key and the Armenians. A motion manding that the atrocities should her by peaceful means or by force egatived, and in its place a resolu- reign Relations Committee adopted, hope that the European Powers bout the execution of the provisions reaty regarding Armenia. Senator hed his countrymen for their h respect to the destruction of the ion station, and said if it were an re that was burnt, and English pelled to flee, the British Govern- have stood idly by, but would have same noble determination as when p-dition was undertaken for the ish prisoners. They ought to take air model in this respect. Who, he lie for such a country? If ne est to send American ships to force s, or invite Russia to take posses- nia, with an assurance of the he resources of the United States.
