DEATH OF MR. LAURENCE FROST, PUNCHBOWL, MEELICK.

This highly esteemed gentleman passed away on the evening of the 5th instant at his residence, and in the presence of his family, at the patriarchal age of 95 years, and though ailing for some time past, his faculties were perfectly clear almost to the last moment. The remains were conveyed on Tuesday last to the family burial place at Meelick, and the funeral cortege was of very large proportions, the people of all the surrounding districts attending, in order to pay a last tribute of respect to the memory of one who connected the present with a generation almost wholly passed away. The Rev Luke Gleeson, P.P., Meelick, assisted by the Rev Father Hanly, and the Rev Solomon Frost and Father Fitzgerald, cousins of deceased, read the burial service. The chief mourners were—James L Frost, John Frost, and Dr Phos Frost, Monmouth (sons of deceased); Robert Ryan, Ballymorris (son-in-law); Dr J. R. Nolan, Limerick, Dr J. Nolan, Shanagolden (cousins). Amongst those also present were—Dr T. G. O'Sullivan, William-street; Dr Brennan, Par-teen; James Frost, J.P., George-street; S. B. THE CLARE SHOW.

Agriculturists in Clare should take the liveliest interest in the Summer Exhibition of the Horticultural Society, which is to take place at Ennis on the 30th July. With such a description it might not at first be understood what particular interest the event has to farmers, but when it is pointed out that a Butter Section is added to the Show, our meaning will be better conceived. Up to some years ago, owing to the slovenly manner in which Irish butter was turned out, it got quickly superseded by the choice make and carefully handled product of the Danes, and there
